The cover of this year’s ILA Handbook of Organization and Membership Directory features one of the posters created for iREAD’s 2014 theme Paws to Read by Tad Hills. Hills is the author and illustrator of How Rocket Learned to Read and Rocket Writes a Story, both published by Schwartz & Wade Books, an imprint of Random House.
The ILA Handbook of Organization is a guide to the structure of the Illinois Library Association.
It provides names of current officials and committee members. It contains key documents, such as the Mission Statement, Bylaws, and Policies. It also contains information on the current awards available, lists ILA’s current publications, and provides various order forms and membership applications.

The Membership Directory includes the name and brief address of personal, institutional, and associate members. Please notify the ILA office of any changes or corrections to the information. Illinois Library Association, 33 W.

Mission Statement of the Illinois Library Association

The Illinois Library Association is the voice for Illinois libraries and the millions who depend on them. It provides leadership for the development, promotion, and improvement of library services in Illinois and for the library community in order to enhance learning and ensure access to information for all. This access is essential for an open democratic society, an informed electorate, and the advancement of knowledge for all people.

Advocating for the Public Interest

• develop and promote strong public policy related to libraries, literacy, and lifelong learning;
• defend intellectual freedom and access to information; and
• increase public awareness of the value of libraries to society.

Promoting Excellence and Innovation

• provide outstanding programs of continuing education and leadership development;
• support the recruitment, retention, and professional development of a culturally and racially diverse workforce for libraries;
• produce high quality publications and communications; and
• celebrate the achievement of excellence and innovation on behalf of the membership.

Managing the Present to Prepare for the Future

In order to achieve these goals, ILA will use its resources wisely and maintain a flexible structure that promotes the diverse interests and broad participation of members.

ILA’s Origins

Officially founded in 1896, the association now consists of 3,200 members representing all types of libraries across the state.

The first meeting of what was to become the Illinois Library Association was held November 22–23, 1881. Originally called the Western Library Association (WLA), it met twice, in 1881 and again in 1884, both times in Illinois. William Frederick Poole was its first president and its avowed purpose was to promote cooperative purchasing and cataloging. The WLA ceased to exist in 1885. Ten years later, members of the Chicago Library Club proposed forming a state library association and held a meeting in Springfield to officially launch the Illinois Library Association. The vision and spirit of these early founding members—Katharine Sharp, Percy F. Bicknell, Dr. G.E. Wire and others—has been echoed by countless ILA members and leaders through the years.
Illinois Library Association

2013–2014 Executive Board
The Illinois Library Association Executive Board is the governing body of the association and comprises fifteen directors serving a three-year term and an ALA councilor who serves a three-year term. The board adopts and oversees implementation of all plans, policies, programs, and budget for the association. Together, board members constitute leadership of the association and assume responsibility for its success.

ILA Executive Board members should:

1. Understand and support the association’s mission.
2. Employ the executive director, work in cooperation with him/her, and participate in his/her evaluation.
3. Prepare for and attend board meetings regularly; actively participate, including service on committees, as an officer, and as a board liaison to assigned units within the association.
4. Engage in development of goals and plans for the association, review progress, and evaluate outcomes.
5. Act as a trustee of the association’s finances, working to provide adequate resources and overseeing responsible expenditure of funds.
6. Participate in the ILA fundraising activities and personally support those activities.
7. Represent the association as a whole and communicate regularly with membership from various constituencies.
8. Set policies which further the association’s mission, while ensuring legal and ethical integrity and accountability to membership.
9. Share expertise, contribute to decision-making, and support decisions of the board.
10. Complete assignments in a timely fashion.
11. Enhance the association’s public standing.

Each ILA Executive Board member has a liaison relationship with several ILA committees and/or forums. The purpose of the liaison relationship is to facilitate communication and to give each ILA unit an informed voice at the board level to represent its activities, issues, and viewpoints. It is mutually beneficial that the liaison relationship be actively cultivated between the board member and the forum or committee leaders. The following suggestions are advanced to establish a strong relationship:

Committee/Forum Leader

- Put the board liaison on your roster so meeting reminders, agendas, and documents will be sent automatically to the liaison.
- Call the board liaison with questions that involve ILA policies, goals, and finances. (Procedural questions are probably best answered by the ILA staff.)
- Send the board liaison a copy of the unit’s activity report three weeks before ILA Executive Board meetings. (Send a copy to the ILA office as well for distribution to other board members.)
- Discuss upcoming plans with the board liaison in the early stages of development to benefit from useful advice about policy issues that may affect the activity.
- Invite your board liaison to your meetings.
- At the end of the term of office, turn over minutes and other significant documents to the new committee/forum leader.

Board Liaisons

- Keep informed of ILA policies, goals, and financial guidelines to serve as a resource to units.
- Stay on top of ILA activities across-the-board to assist units in planning, avoiding overlap activities and date conflicts.
- Attend unit meetings (in person or electronically) if possible, but especially if the unit leader seeks the liaison’s assistance to work on a specific issue.
- Ensure that committee chair or forum manager submit the report of their activities in a timely manner (schedule is listed on the report form).
- Monitor, encourage, and assist the committee or forum to meet both their goals and those goals assigned within the ILA Strategic Plan.
- Be an informed voice for the unit at ILA Executive Board meetings. Share board documents and news with units.

Financial expectations

Board members are responsible for their own travel, meals, and lodging. Meetings are held in various cities around the state and frequently in the following locations: Bloomington, Chicago, East Peoria, Joliet, and Springfield. For the July orientation meeting, the board members should expect to stay for up to two nights in a nearby motel unless they are within a short driving distance of the meeting location. Board meetings generally last from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. but may start earlier and last longer if there is an overly full agenda.

Directors on non-profit boards are usually expected to contribute financially to the organization as a show of their support. As leaders of the association, ILA Executive Board members are encouraged, whenever financially able, to make a minimum annual donation of $100 to the ILA Endowment Fund. Donations can be made directly, contributed from fundraisers or honoraria, or solicited from other sources.

Conflict of interest

All board members are required to sign a ‘Non-Conflict of Interest’ statement at the beginning of each year of their term.

Meetings

The ILA Executive Board meets five times each fiscal year. Meeting schedules for the ILA Executive and Finance Committees and for other committees and forums vary.
COMMITTEES

Committees provide major support services for ILA membership, leadership, special interest groups, and the Executive Board. Committee chairs are appointed by the current ILA president with the approval of the Executive Board. Terms of office vary. This term is designed to provide an avenue for interested members to become easily involved in ILA activities. The hope is that the experience gained will encourage members to continue their involvement in ILA. ILA members may volunteer or be appointed to these committees.

Advocacy Committee

The committee focuses on implementation of the legislative agenda as recommended by the Public Policy Committee (PPC) and approved by the ILA Executive Board; develops an annual advocacy plan in conjunction with PPC and the Executive Board; identifies advocacy best practices and implements them as appropriate; builds partnerships with organizations that have similar views; is responsible for advocacy education of ILA members; develops educational materials and programs to improve ILA members’ advocacy skills.

Committee consists of twelve voting members, representing all types of libraries and public library trustees, serving three-year, staggered terms. Each incoming ILA president shall appoint four members, including his/her designated Advocacy Committee chair. Nonvoting ex officio members are the ILA executive director, the director of the Illinois State Library, ILA president, ILA vice president/president-elect, and the chair of PPC.

Awards Committee

Administers the awards and recognition program of the association annually; publicizes the awards to attract qualified nominees; selects association-wide award winners. Committee membership is not more than ten personal members from diverse types of library settings. Members serve a two-year, staggered term. Chair is appointed by the vice president/president-elect of ILA for one year. All persons commenting or voting in the ILA awards process will recuse themselves from participating in the process of any award for which they have been nominated or the process of any award for which they have a conflict of interest.

Cultural and Racial Diversity Committee

- Initiate training, programs, and awareness regarding cultural and racial diversity for the profession and the library community.
- Initiate strategies, in conjunction with the Nominating Committee, to increase cultural and racial diversity in ILA’s membership and leadership by librarians, trustees, and support staff.
- Introduce strategies to recruit workers of varied cultures and races to work in libraries and the profession.
- Provide recognition for ALA’s Spectrum scholars and encourage participation in the opportunities provided for library workers and others desiring to obtain professional library degrees.
- Encourage governing boards to reflect the cultural and racial composition of their communities.
- Seek partnerships with library institutions and organizations to support these initiatives
- Develop, monitor, and evaluate diversity efforts in the association and report to the ILA Executive Board annually about achievements, continuing challenges, and strategies for change.

Committee membership is not more than ten personal members from diverse types of library settings. Members serve a three-year, staggered term. Chair is appointed by the vice president/president-elect of ILA for one year.

iREAD Committee
The Illinois Reading Enrichment and Development (iREAD) program is a coordinated, self-supporting effort to develop and provide high-quality, low-cost resources and products to enable local library staff to promote reading. The program's primary audience is kindergarten through grade eight, but provides supplemental materials for preschoolers, teens, and adults. The program's goals are:

- to provide a program that supports local library efforts to promote literacy and lifelong learning;
- to provide a forum for grassroots involvement across the state;
- to encourage statewide participation in and use of the iREAD theme;
- to encourage efficient use of local staff time by networking resources across the state;
- to provide high-quality, low-cost products through volume purchase; and
- to provide resources and projects suitable for all size libraries, rural, urban, and suburban.

The committee is composed of twelve ILA members: three chairs—chair, future chair, and developing chair; four coordinators: resource guide, showcase, and publicity; and five members-at-large: to back up coordinators and perform duties as requested by the chairs—should include young adult and adult representatives who, in addition to member-at-large duties, give guidance to the supplemental materials geared toward these age groups. Chairs will serve a three-year term. Coordinators and members-at-large will serve two-year terms. The committee shall submit recommendations to the ILA president for selection of the iREAD chair.

Marketing Committee

The Marketing Committee will help libraries promote the value they bring to their communities through the sharing of successful marketing practices. In addition, the committee may serve as the marketing arm of the association. Committee membership is not more than ten members, including the chair. A minimum of three members should be responsible for the day-to-day marketing activities of their library. The committee chair will recommend candidates for appointment who match these qualifications to the incoming ILA president. Appointments are for three-year, staggered terms. The chair is appointed by the ILA vice president/president-elect for one year.

Nominating Committee

Develops an annual slate of candidates for the Executive Board, including vice president/president-elect and ALA councilor (every four years). Committee consists of six members, in addition to the chair, serving one-year terms. Chair of the committee is the immediate ILA past president. Members serve as ballot counters once ballots have been received and inform the candidates of the election results.

1. Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Executive Board and consist of no more than seven persons (representative of the diverse constituencies of ILA and geographic regions in Illinois). See ILA Bylaws, Article IX, Section 3.

2. The Nominating Committee is chaired by the immediate ILA past president. She/he is responsible for calling meetings and selecting nominees. The slate must be selected by December 20 each year in order to meet ILA Reporter deadlines.

3. Each forum may submit to the Nominating Committee a list of up to three (3) of its members to be considered for nomination to the Executive Board. See ILA Bylaws, Article IX, Section 4.

4. In selecting candidates, the Nominating Committee will use a “pairing” system for board election to reflect the Illinois library community’s diverse constituencies. Our diverse constituencies include, but are not limited to racial and ethnic diversity, age, gender, sexual orientation, geographic diversity, type of library worker, and trustee representation. Pairing requires two candidates who reflect these diversities for each of the designated seats up for election. The board will always have at least one member representing academic librarianship, one representing special librarianship, one representing school librarianship, and one representing public libraries. The ILA presidency would be rotated with public librarians being limited to serving two out of any three years.

5. ILA office sends test e-mail to all current individual members. This fulfills two functions: informing members of upcoming election and process, and to catch bad addresses. Members may also request a paper ballot instead of an electronic ballot at this time.

6. The slate of nominees along with the procedures for nominations by petition will be published in the February issue of the ILA Reporter.
7. Nominations by petition must be received in the ILA office no later than March 1.
8. Chair of the Nominating Committee will secure biographical information as determined by the committee from all candidates no later than March 5.
9. Chair of the Nominating Committee prepares the ballot and biographical information in an order to be established by lot and forwards to the ILA office no later than March 15.
10. Based on “non-e-mail” members or members requesting a paper ballot, the ILA office will print the ballot and biographical information. ILA office will transmit nominee material to ILA Webmaster (e.g., biographical information.)
11. The ILA office will mail ballot, biographical information, and a return envelope to members requesting paper ballots or without e-mail addresses.
12. Election polls are open on April 1. Automated e-mail messages linking to online ballot goes out; paper ballots are mailed to “non-e-mail” members and members requesting a paper ballot; any e-mail bounce backs after announcement message is transmitted are immediately converted to paper ballot.
13. Reminder e-mail to members that have not yet voted is sent on April 22.
14. Ballots must be returned to the ILA office no later than thirty (30) days after the postmarked date on the ballot.
15. The Nominating Committee chair will arrange for counting of ballots and determining of those elected in accordance with the bylaws.
16. The Nominating Committee will be responsible for notifying all candidates of election results by phone. The ILA office will mail vote tally to all candidates.

Public Policy Committee
Provides the association’s focus on legislative matters; recommends studies on projects designed to advance the development of all types of libraries; advocates legislative action that advances library service for all residents of Illinois. Committee consists of twelve voting members, serving three-year, staggered terms. Each incoming ILA president should appoint four members, including his/her designated Public Policy Committee chair. Nonvoting ex officio members are the ILA executive director, the director of the Illinois State Library, ILA president, ILA vice president/president-elect, the chair of the ILA Intellectual Freedom Committee, and a representative of the school library community, a representative of the academic library community, a representative of the library systems community. A vacancy shall be declared for any member who is absent without cause from three regular meetings in the period of one year.

ILA Conflict of Interest Policy

Individuals holding key positions of authority in the Association—including, but not necessarily limited to, members of the Executive Board, other elected officials, committee and task force chairpersons or co-chairpersons, all members of the Conference Committee, and forum managers or co-managers—must not use these positions for their own direct or indirect personal gain or to unduly benefit a particular library, business, or other organization with which they are associated. All such individuals who become aware of an actual or potential conflict of interest with respect to any matter they are to consider by virtue of their position of authority in the Association shall immediately disclose this conflict and shall neither vote on the matter nor attempt to influence the votes of others. Such points shall be recorded in the minutes of any meeting during which they arise.

All individuals elected or appointed to, or already holding, any of the key positions enumerated above shall be required annually to complete, sign, and submit an Agreement Covering Disclosure of Potential Conflicts of Interest in order to assume or remain in these positions.

ILLINOIS LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

Agreement Covering Disclosure of Potential Conflicts of Interest

I have reviewed, understand, and agree to observe ILA’s Conflict of Interest Policy. In accordance with this policy, I agree to disclose any relationships or potential relationships that could be construed as posing a conflict of interest relating to my service to the Association. Both paid and unpaid affiliations will be disclosed.

SOURCES OF POTENTIAL CONFLICT:

I agree to bring these interests, as well as other interests which might arise or of which I might subsequently become aware, to the attention of the Executive Board and/or the appropriate committee, task force, or forum when any such interest is germane to a topic under discussion. In addition to disclosing this potential conflict of interest, I shall neither vote on any matter related to this topic nor attempt to influence the votes of others.

I further agree that I will update this statement whenever necessary during my term of service, and I further understand that this statement shall be considered public information within the Association.

Article I—Name
Section 1. The name of this organization shall be the Illinois Library Association.

Article II—Purpose
Section 1. The Illinois Library Association shall be a not-for-profit educational organization, the purpose of which shall be to improve and develop library service and librarianship.

Article III—Members
Section 1. Any individual or organization interested in the purpose of this association shall become a member upon payment of dues. Personal members shall be entitled to hold elected office and vote. Institutions or businesses interested in the purpose of this association shall become nonvoting members upon payment of dues.

Article IV—Association Year
Section 1. The association year shall be July 1 to June 30.

Article V—Executive Board
Section 1. The governing body of the association shall be an elected Executive Board comprised of sixteen Members the president, the vice-president/president-elect, twelve directors-at-large, the immediate past president and the ALA Councilor. The vice-president/president-elect will be elected to a three-year term serving the first year as vice-president/president-elect, the second year as president, and the third year as immediate past president. The twelve directors-at-large will each serve a three-year term or until successors are qualified. Terms of directors shall be staggered so that four directors are elected each year. The ALA councilor shall serve a term as required by the constitution and bylaws of ALA. All terms shall begin on the first day of the association year.

Section 2. The association’s executive director and the director of the Illinois State Library shall be nonvoting members of the Executive Board.

Section 3. The Executive Board shall adopt, implement, and enforce all policies and budgets for the association and coordinate all activities of the association.

Section 4. The decision of the Executive Board shall be final in all matters, but any decision or action of the Executive Board may be changed or overturned by the vote of three-quarters of the association members in attendance at any duly constituted association business meeting at which a quorum is present.

Section 4.1. The Executive Board may be directed to take action by the vote of a majority of association members in attendance at any duly constituted membership meeting at which a quorum is present.

Section 5. The Executive Board shall hold a minimum of four meetings a year. Meetings shall be called by the president or by any three members of the board. Nine voting members of the board shall constitute a quorum. A majority of the voting members present shall be sufficient to pass any measure at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

Section 6. The Executive Board may transact business by mail or electronically at the discretion of the president.

Section 7. Any member of the Executive Board, with the exception of the Officers, may be removed for cause by a vote of three-quarters of the members present at an Executive Board meeting where a quorum is present. Any officer of the Executive Board may be removed for cause by a vote of three-quarters present at a duly constituted membership meeting.

Section 7.1. A director shall resign by submitting a letter of resignation to the president.

Section 7.2. A vacancy shall be declared for any board member who is absent without cause from three regular board meetings in the period of one year.

Section 8. A member of the Executive Board may not serve two terms in succession. A period of at least one year must pass from the end of an individual’s three-year term on the board before that individual is eligible to serve another term.

Section 8.1. A member of the Executive Board elected to fill an unexpired term of two years or less is eligible for nomination and election to a full three-year term.

Article VI—Officers
Section 1. The officers of the association shall be the vice-president/president-elect, the president, the immediate past president, and the treasurer.

Section 2. The president-elect shall be duly elected by the membership of the ILA. This officer will serve as vice-president of the board for the first year, president the second, and past president the third. The treasurer will be chosen from among the continuing directors-at-large, and will be elected by a majority vote of the Executive Board at its last meeting in the association year. The term of the treasurer shall begin on the first day of the association year.

Section 2.1. The treasurer may be elected to two consecutive one-year terms.

Section 2.2. Any officer may resign from office by submitting a letter of resignation to the Executive Board.

Section 2.3. Upon the resignation, removal, or incapacitation of the president, the vice-president shall assume the duties of the president.

Section 2.4. Vacancies in the position of vice-president or treasurer shall be filled by the appointment of the president with the approval of a majority of a quorum of the Executive Board. The appointee shall serve until the conclusion of the fiscal year. The replacement for the position of vice-president/president-elect shall be elected at the next association-wide election.

Section 3. Duties of Officers.

Section 3.1. The president shall preside at all meetings of the Executive Board, and shall chair all meetings of the association membership. The president shall serve as the principal spokesperson for the association.

Section 3.2. The vice-president/president-elect shall serve on the Executive Board and assume the duties of the president in the absence of the president.

Section 3.3. The treasurer shall oversee all financial activities of the association.

Section 3.4. The president and treasurer shall submit to the membership annually a report of the association activity and finances which shall be placed in the association archives.

Article VII—Executive Committee
Section 1. The Executive Committee will consist of the officers and the executive director. The executive director will be a nonvoting member. The immediate past president will chair the Executive Committee.

Section 2. The Executive Committee shall oversee the implementation of association policies and plans and the conduct of association activities during the intervals between meetings of the Executive Board.

Section 3. The Executive Committee shall assign duties and responsibilities to the executive director and to the association members consistent with adopted plans and budgets.

Section 4. The Executive Committee, in consultation with the executive director, shall be responsible for the regular reviewing of the personnel policies for ILA staff and will apprise the Executive Board of any changes sought.

Section 5. The Executive Committee shall not assume the planning, budgeting, or policy-making responsibilities of the Executive Board.

Article VIII—Executive Director
Section 1. The Executive Board shall employ an executive director, whose principal place of employment shall be known as the Executive Office.

Section 2. The executive director shall supervise the association staff in accordance with the personnel policies for ILA staff, shall administer the activities and business affairs of the association under the direction of the Executive Board and Executive Committee, shall be secretary to the Board and to the association, and shall perform other duties assigned by the board.

Section 3. The executive director shall provide the Executive Board an annual report to be placed in the association archives and other reports as requested.

Article IX—Nomination and Elections
Section 1. Elections for all association-wide, membership-elected positions shall be by ballot.

Section 2. All candidates for elective office shall be personal members of the association at the time of nomination.

Section 3. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Executive Board and consist of no more than seven persons (representative of the diverse constituencies of ILA and geographic regions in Illinois) and shall be chaired by the association’s immediate past president.

Section 4. Each forum may submit to the Nominating Committee a list of up to three of its members to be considered for nomination to the Executive Board.

Section 5. The Nominating Committee shall nominate two candidates for vice-president/president-elect, and shall nominate two candidates for each of the four director positions, and for any director vacancy resulting from an unexpired term.

Section 6. The Nominating Committee shall seek the best qualified candidates from the association membership and shall address the issue of under-represented groups in the leadership in formulating the slate.

Section 7. The Nominating Committee shall nominate two persons as candidates for the position of ILA Councilor in the years in which an election is required.

Section 8. Each year the Nominating Committee shall report its slate of candidates to the membership in the February issue of the ILA Reporter.

Section 9. Nominations by petition for an elective office shall be proposed in writing by at least one hundred (100) personal members of the association and delivered to the Executive Office by March 1. Candidates nominated by petition shall be added to the slate and placed in the candidate group that most clearly matches the affiliation of the petitioner. The determination of placement on the slate is the responsibility of the Nominating Committee.

Section 10. Ballots listing all candidates for vice-president/president-elect and for director positions shall be mailed no later than April 1 to all who hold personal memberships in the association. The deadline for return to the Executive Office shall be thirty days after the ballot is postmarked. The same calendar will hold in years when the ILA Councilor is elected.

Section 11. The candidate receiving the highest totals for each elective position shall be elected to a three-year term. If the position is open due to a vacancy on the board, the candidate receiving the highest total for that position shall be elected for the balance of the unexpired term.

Section 12. In the event of a tie ballot, the winner shall be determined by lot.

Section 13. If an elected candidate is unable to assume office, the candidate who received the next highest number of votes for that specific position shall be declared the winner.

Article X—Meetings
Section 1. There shall be an annual business meeting of the association at its annual conference or at another time and place determined by the Executive Board.

Section 2. Special meetings of the association shall be called by the Executive Board, and shall be called by the president upon receipt of a written request of one hundred (100) members of the association. Written notice of the time and place of special meetings shall be given to all association members at least three weeks and no more than sixty (60) days prior to the meeting, and only business mentioned in the call shall be transacted.

Section 3. One hundred and fifty (150) personal members shall constitute a quorum at any annual or special meeting. A majority of personal members present and voting shall be required to pass any measure except as otherwise required in these bylaws.

Section 4. A mail vote of the personal members may be taken at the discretion of the Executive Board. An affirmative response by the majority of those whose responses are received by the Executive Office within thirty days after postmark of mailing from the Executive Office shall be required to pass a proposal.

Article XI—Membership Dues
Section 1. The categories of and dues for association personal and nonvoting members shall be determined by the Executive Board, subject to approval of two-thirds of the personal members present and voting at the annual meeting, provided that written notice of proposed changes has been given to all members at least three weeks, but not more than sixty (60) days, in advance of the meeting.

Section 2. Dues shall be paid annually in advance. Membership shall cease when dues are forty-five days in arrears.

Section 3. Personal and nonvoting members who have forfeited their membership through non-payment of dues shall be reinstated upon payment of dues for the current year.

Section 4. The Executive Board may adopt formulas for establishing member anniversary dates and membership incentive programs.

Article XII—Management
Section 1. The Executive Board, through its development of plans and policies for the association, shall determine the allocation of management responsibilities and tasks.

Section 2. The president, with the approval of the Executive Board, shall have the authority to appoint teams of members, committees, and task forces, or utilize any other appropriate management concept, in order to effectively accomplish the mission of the association.

Section 2.1. The president, with the approval of the Executive Board, shall have the authority to discontinue management assignments, or to disband or reorganize any team, committee, or task force, as necessary for the effective accomplishment of the association’s mission.

Section 3. The Executive Board, through its allocation of funding in the annual budgeting process, shall determine the resources to be available to various individuals and groups involved in the management of the association.

Section 4. The Executive Board shall provide policies and guidelines for all management activities.

Article XIII—Forums
Section 1. An ILA forum may be formed with the approval of the Executive Board. The purpose of forums is to provide programs and services that will meet the needs of individuals and/or institutions that have particular special interests.

Section 2. The Executive Board shall be required to establish a forum upon the written request of sixty (60) or more ILA personal members.

Section 3. The Executive Board shall establish general guidelines and policies for the operation of forums, and shall provide funding for forum activities as part of the annual budget of the association.

Section 4. The Executive Board shall discontinue a forum when it has determined that the usefulness of the forum has ended.

Article XIV—Official Record
Section 1. The archives of the Illinois Library Association shall be the repository for all records of ILA of permanent value. These shall be housed in the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library, originally Illinois State Historical Library, created in 1889 by the Illinois General Assembly. The executive director shall be... responsible for transmitting these records.

Section 2. The executive director shall transmit reports of all meetings of the association to whatever journal the Executive Board shall designate to publish the official reports of the association. It shall be the duty of the executive director to obtain one copy of each number of the journal in which such reports appear for the ILA archives.

Article XV—Affiliation with ALA

Section 1. The association shall be a chapter of the American Library Association, as provided in the bylaws of that association. The Executive Board may choose to affiliate any element of the association with a comparable unit of ALA.

Section 2. The ILA representative to the ALA Council shall be elected by mail vote at the same time as ILA officers, for a term as required by the constitution and bylaws of ALA.

Section 3. The president of ILA shall appoint, with the approval of the Executive Board, a substitute ALA councilor in the event that this office is vacated. The appointed councilor shall serve the remainder of the unexpired term.

Article XVI—Affiliation with Other Organizations

Section 1. The Executive Board may affiliate the association, or any element of the association, with other organizations whose purpose is consistent with that given in Article II.

Article XVII—Endowment Funds

Section 1. Endowment funds shall be administered by the Executive Board for the benefit of the association.

Article XVIII—Annual Audit

Section 1. The accounts of the association shall be audited annually by an auditor selected by the Executive Board.

Article XIX—Dissolution

Section 1. In the event that it becomes necessary to dissolve the Illinois Library Association, the assets remaining after all obligations have been met shall be transferred to a not-for-profit educational or charitable organization whose purpose is to foster and improve library service. The organization shall be selected by the Executive Board of the association.

Article XX—Parliamentary Authority

Section 1. The latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the association except when it is inconsistent with the bylaws of the Illinois Library Association.

Article XXI—Amendments

Section 1. Any bylaw may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the personal members present and voting at any meeting of the association where a quorum is present, provided that copies of the amendment are mailed to personal members thirty days before the meeting. Amendments to proposed bylaws may be presented from the floor only if they are germane to the issue. Mail votes shall be taken at the discretion of the Executive Board. An affirmative response by a two-thirds majority of those eligible to vote whose response is received by the Executive Office within thirty days after the postmark by mailing of ballots from the Executive Office shall be required to pass a proposal.

Article XXII—Definitions

Section 1. The terms “mail” and “postmark” in these bylaws shall be defined respectively as delivery, and date of delivery, by mail, e-mail, or other electronic means.

ILA Fiscal Policy and Procedures

6010 Fiscal Policy Review
This fiscal policy should be reviewed biannually by the treasurer and the Finance Committee.

6010.1 Fiscal Year
The fiscal year of the Illinois Library Association is July 1 to June 30. (Bylaws: Article IV, Section 1)

6011 Executive Board
The governing body of the association shall be an elected Executive Board comprised of the ALA Councilor who shall serve a four-year term and fifteen directors, each of whom shall serve a three-year term or until successors are qualified. The association’s executive director and the director of the Illinois State Library shall be nonvoting members of the Executive Board. (Excerpted from Bylaws: Article V, Section 3)

The Executive Board shall adopt, implement, and enforce all plans, policies, and budgets for the association and coordinate all activities of the association. (Bylaws: Article V, Section 3.1)

The Executive Board, through its allocation of funding in the annual budgeting process, shall determine the resources to be available to various individuals and groups involved in the management of the association. (Bylaws: Article XII, Section 3.2)

6011.1 Association Officers
The officers of the association shall be the president, the vice-president, immediate past president and the treasurer. (Bylaws: Article VI, Section 1)

The president shall preside at all meetings of the Executive Board, and shall chair all meetings of the association membership. The president shall serve as the principal spokesperson for the association. (Bylaws: Article VI, Section 3.1)

The vice-president shall assist the president as called upon and shall assume the duties of the president in the president’s absence. (Bylaws: Article VI, Section 3.2)

The treasurer shall oversee all the financial activities of the association. (Bylaws: Article VI, Section 3.3)

6011.2 Executive Committee
The Executive Committee will consist of the officers and the executive director. The immediate past president will chair the Executive Committee. (Bylaws: Article VII, Section 1)

The Executive Committee shall oversee the implementation of association plans and conduct of association activities during the intervals between meetings of the Executive Board. (Bylaws: Article VII, Section 2)

The Executive Committee shall assign duties and responsibilities to the executive director and to association members consistent with adopted plans and budgets. (Bylaws: Article VII, Section 3)

The Executive Committee shall not assume the planning, budgeting, or policy-making responsibilities of the Executive Board, and shall in all cases be bound by the decisions and policies of the Executive Board. (Bylaws: Article VII, Section 3.4)

6012 Treasurer—Responsibilities
The treasurer serves as the chair of the Finance Committee.

The treasurer shall submit an annual report on the financial condition of the association to the membership at the annual meeting, and this report shall be placed in the association archives. (Bylaws: Article VI, Section 3.4)

The treasurer proposes fiscal policy and presents financial reports generated by the ILA Office. The following documents should be included in these reports on a monthly basis: the current budget status, a balance sheet showing all cash assets and liabilities, and a summary statement of income and expenses for the time period covered by the report.

In addition to these reports, accounting and special reports shall be presented concerning the financial status of projects, fund balances and other activities that produce cash receipts and expenditures. Detailed records of income and expenses shall be available in the Executive Office.

The treasurer, in consultation with the Finance Committee, shall prepare a written report within thirty days of the close of the fiscal year. The executive director will make this annual report available to the membership through an ILA publication.

The treasurer, in consultation with the Finance Committee and the executive director, shall oversee the association’s investments in savings certificates, treasury bills, or other federally-insured, income-producing investments when cash assets allow such investments without jeopardizing the association’s ability to conduct current business.

6015 Finance Committee
The Finance Committee is an administrative committee which consists of the treasurer and a minimum of four other members drawn from the Executive Board. Committee members are appointed to two-year, staggered terms. The president and the executive director serve as ex officio members.

The Finance Committee reviews all fiscal policies and procedures, responding to direction from the Executive Board. The Finance Committee serves as the consulting body for the treasurer, the Executive Board, and the executive director in such areas as association investments, the budget, and other financial concerns of the association.

6016 Executive Director—Fiscal Responsibilities
The executive director shall administer the activities and business affairs of the association under the direction of the Executive Board and Executive Committee. (Bylaws: Article VIII, Section 2)

The Executive Office under the direction of the executive director shall have custody of the ledgers, account books, check books, deposit records, vouchers, pass books, and other documents pertinent to the association’s fiscal matters. Such records shall be regularly updated and available to any member of the association upon reasonable notice and during office hours.

The executive director shall administer all cash receipts and disbursements in accordance with policies established by the Executive Board.

The executive director shall collect data for consideration in the budget process; arrange meetings, hearings, etc.; draft a recommended budget; disseminate budget information; and in other ways work with the Finance Committee and the Executive Board to facilitate the function of budget review and control.

The executive director shall, in consultation with the treasurer and the Finance Committee, administer the association’s investments in savings certificates, treasury bills, or other federally-insured, income-producing investments when cash assets allow such investments without jeopardizing the association’s ability to conduct current business.

The Executive Office financial staff shall assist the treasurer in presenting monthly reports to the Executive Board at regularly scheduled board meetings. Generally, the following documents shall be included: a current budget comparison, a balance... sheet showing all cash assets and liabilities, and a summary of income and expenses.

Special reports and accounting shall be made as required on the financial status of projects, fund balances, and other non-budget activities that produce cash receipts and expenditures.

The executive director shall provide the forum managers and committee chairs with quarterly financial reports outlining the operational expenses.

Authorization for payment of expenses from approved office budget shall be the responsibility of the executive director.

6016.1 Taxes
The executive director shall be responsible for meeting deposit and filing requirements of state, local, and federal agencies. These include:
1. Deposits and reports of federal taxes withheld.
2. Deposits and reports of state taxes withheld.
3. Deposits and reports of FICA withheld.
4. Filing of annual information reports as a tax-exempt organization with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.
5. Filing of all other forms pertinent to taxes or salaries as required by government agencies.

6016.2 Insurance and Bonds
Comprehensive insurance is to be maintained for the Executive Office, including liability, theft, fire, worker's compensation, employee and officer dishonesty, and other types of insurance as deemed necessary by the Executive Board.

Directors and officers insurance shall be maintained by the association.

The executive director is authorized to contract for policies after board approval. All insurance programs should be reviewed annually by the executive director.

6017 Suspected Misconduct and Dishonesty

Introduction
Like all organizations, the Illinois Library Association (ILA) is faced with the risks that come from wrongdoing, misconduct, dishonesty, and fraud. As with all business exposures, we must be prepared to manage these risks and their potential impact in a professional manner.

The impact of misconduct and dishonesty may include:
- The actual financial loss incurred
- Damage to the reputation of our organization and to our employees
- Negative publicity
- Cost of investigation
- Loss of employees
- Loss of customers
- Damage to our relationship with our suppliers or contractors
- Litigation
- Decrease in employee morale

ILA's goal is to establish and maintain an environment of fairness, ethics, and honesty for our employees, officers, customers, suppliers, and anyone else with whom we have a relationship. To maintain such an environment requires the active assistance of every employee and officer every day.

ILA is committed to the deterrence, detection, and correction of misconduct and dishonesty. The discovery, reporting, and documentation of such acts provides a sound foundation for the protection of innocent parties, the taking of disciplinary action against offenders up to and including dismissal where appropriate, the referral to law enforcement agencies when warranted by the facts, and the recovery of assets.

Purpose
The purpose of this document is to communicate association policy regarding the deterrence and investigation of suspected misconduct and dishonesty by employees, officers, and others, and to provide specific instructions regarding appropriate action in case of suspected violations.

Definition of Misconduct and Dishonesty
Misconduct and dishonesty include but are not limited to:
- Theft or other misappropriation of assets, including assets of the organization, our customers, suppliers, or others with whom we have a business relationship.
- Misstatements and other fraud in our organization's records, including intentional misstatement of the financial position or results of operations.
- Forgery or other alteration of documents
- Fraud, including misappropriation of assets, and other unlawful acts
- Other wrongdoing

The association specifically prohibits these and any other illegal activities in the actions of its employees, officers, and others responsible for carrying out the association's activities.

Policy and Responsibilities

Reporting
It is the responsibility of every employee or officer to immediately report suspected misconduct or dishonesty to the ILA Executive Director (or directly to the ILA President, if more appropriate). The ILA Executive Director, when made aware of such potential acts by subordinates, must immediately report such acts to the ILA President. Any reprisal against any employee or other reporting individual because that individual, in good faith, reported a violation, is strictly forbidden.

Due to the important yet sensitive nature of suspected violations, effective professional follow-up is critical. Employees or officers, while appropriately concerned about "getting to the bottom" of such issues, should not in any circumstances perform any investigative or other follow-up steps on their own. Concerned, but uninformed, employees or officers represent one of the greatest threats to proper incident handling. All relevant matters, including suspected but unproved matters should be referred immediately to the Executive Director (or directly to the ILA President, if more appropriate) for follow-up.

Additional responsibilities of the Executive Director
The Executive Director has three additional responsibilities:

First, be aware of what can go wrong in your area of responsibility.

Second, establish and maintain monitoring, review, and control procedures that will prevent acts of wrongdoing.

Third, establish and maintain monitoring, review, and control procedures that detect acts of wrongdoing promptly should prevention efforts fail.
Assistance in effectively carrying out these responsibilities is available through ILA's accountant and the treasurer.

Responsibility and authority for follow-up and investigation

The Finance Committee has the primary responsibility for all investigations involving fiscal misconduct and dishonesty. The committee may request the assistance of the external auditors, including review of the external auditor's annual examinations and evaluations of internal controls.

The Finance Committee will have:

- Free and unrestricted access to all records and premises, whether owned or rented,
- The authority to examine, copy, and/or remove all or any portion of the contents of files, desks, cabinets, and other storage facilities (whether in electronic or other form) without the prior knowledge or consent of any individual who might use or have custody of any such items or facilities when it is within the scope of investigative or related follow-up procedures.

All investigations of alleged wrongdoing will be conducted in accordance with applicable laws and ILA's Fiscal Policy and Procedures.

Reported incident follow-up procedure

Care must be taken in the follow-up of suspected misconduct and dishonesty to avoid acting on incorrect or unsupported accusations, to avoid alerting suspected individuals that follow-up and investigation is underway, and to avoid making statements that could adversely affect the association, an employee, officer, or other parties.

Accordingly, the general procedures for follow-up and investigation of reported incidents are as follows:

1. Employees, officers, and others must immediately report all factual details as indicated above under Policy and Responsibilities.
2. The Finance Committee has the responsibility for follow-up and, if appropriate, investigation of all reported incidents.
3. All records related to the reported incident will be retained wherever they reside.
4. Do not communicate with the suspected individuals about the matter under investigation.
5. In appropriate circumstances and at the appropriate time, the Finance Committee will notify the executive director of ILA.
6. The Finance Committee may also obtain the advice of legal counsel at any time throughout the course of an investigation or other follow-up activity on any matter related to the report, investigation steps, proposed disciplinary action, or any anticipated litigation.
7. Neither the existence nor the results of investigations or other follow-up activity will be disclosed or discussed with anyone other than those persons who have a legitimate need to know in order to perform their duties and responsibilities effectively.
8. All inquiries from an attorney or any other contacts from outside of the association, including those from law enforcement agencies or from the employee under investigation, should be referred to ILA's legal counsel.

Investigative or other follow-up activity will be carried out without regard to the suspected individual's position, level, or relationship with the association.

Questions or clarifications related to this policy

All questions or other clarifications of this policy and its related responsibilities should be addressed to the association's legal counsel, who shall be responsible for the administration, revision, interpretation, and application of this policy.

6018 External Auditors

The accounts of the association shall be audited annually by an auditor selected by the Executive Board. (Bylaws: Article XVIII, Section 1)

The annual audit report should be presented to the treasurer, the president, and the executive director by an audit firm. It will be the responsibility of the Treasurer and the Executive Director to present the audit report to the Finance Committee and the Executive Board.

The audit will be reviewed by the Finance Committee and any recommendations made to the Executive Board by the auditor will be addressed and appropriate action taken within the fiscal year. The audit report shall include a review of the treasurer's quarterly reports, shall check compliance with regulatory agency requirements, shall attest to the reliability of the system's internal control, and shall attest to the efficiency of the Executive Office in administering the affairs of the association.

6018.1 Method of Accounting

The day-to-day records of the association shall use the accrual method of accounting.

6020 Account Series for Financial Records

Account series numbers vary from year to year and are determined by ILA accountants.

6021 Books And Records To Be Maintained

6030 Budget Development, Review, and Approval

The Finance Committee submits the budget for the Executive Board’s approval at the last Executive Board meeting of the fiscal year. In preparing the budget, the Finance Committee reviews the financial needs of the organization, taking into consideration the priorities of the association’s strategic plan and the budget proposals submitted by forum managers, committee chairs, and the executive director.

The Finance Committee shall meet in sufficient time prior to the last Executive Board meeting of the fiscal year in order to incorporate program and operational expenses into the framework of the preliminary budget.

All activities and events sponsored by the Illinois Library Association or groups within the association must be planned as cost-recoverable. Activities that do not comply with this guideline must be approved by the Executive Board. Regarding the association’s activity priorities, the Finance Committee must also formulate recommendations on the amount of nonrecoverable funds available to the forum managers and committee chairs each year.

Budget revisions must be approved by the Executive Board.

6040 Dues

The categories of and dues for the association personal and nonvoting members shall be determined by the Executive Board subject to approval of two-thirds of the personal members present and voting at the annual meeting, provided that written notice of proposed changes has been given to all members at least three weeks, but not more than sixty days, in advance of the meeting. (Bylaws: Article XI, Section 1)

The current dues schedule shall accompany all applications for membership in the association.

Membership in the association is based on anniversary dates.

6050 Bank Accounts

The association shall maintain at least two months operational expenses in a readily accessible account from which withdrawal may be made without penalty.

The remainder of all association assets shall be invested in government-insured, high interest-bearing accounts or certificates as determined by the Treasurer in consultation with the executive director.

All cash receipts shall be deposited in an association interest-bearing account and credited to the appropriate ledger account, which is reviewed by the executive director.

Withdrawal or transfer of funds from the association savings/investment account will require the signature of the executive director.

Checks drawn on the association checking account in excess of $5,000 shall be initiated by the executive director and confirmed by the bank with a phone call to any officer of the association.

Checks drawn on the association checking account will require two signatures. (Payroll related checks excepted.)

Wire transfers from the association checking account in excess of $5,000 shall be initiated by the executive director and confirmed by the bank with a phone call to any officer of the association.

6051 Unrestricted Net Assets

It shall be the goal of the association to build and maintain unrestricted net assets which, at the end of a given year, are equal to a minimum of fifty percent (50%) of the association’s total budgeted expenses for the following year. These monies shall constitute ILAs operating reserve and shall be used to provide for temporary cash flows exigencies as well as to meet unexpected or emergency needs that severely impair the association’s ability to operate. Ten percent (10%) of the net proceeds from workshops/projects, conferences, and IREAD shall be dedicated to the building and maintaining the operating reserve and shall be transferred into the association’s pool of long-term investments.

The following categories of funds shall neither be counted as part of the association’s operating reserve nor in any way affect the annual determination of how large the reserve should be: cash awards conferred or bestowed on the basis of merit, such as the World Book/ALA Goal Award; cash contributions given for a special or extraordinary purpose; grants which fund special projects; and the ILA Endowment Fund principal.

Unrestricted gifts which have not been designated for use by the Executive Board within twelve months of receipt will be transferred into the association’s pool of long-term investments.

6060 Short-term Investment Policy

The primary consideration for the investment of the association’s funds is security; the second most important is liquidity; the third most important is maximizing the yield.

The treasurer, in consultation with the executive director, shall administer the association investments when cash assets allow such investments without jeopardizing the association’s ability to conduct business.

The investments shall include, but not be limited to the following: mutual funds invested in U.S. government-backed securities or GNMA funds; obligations of the U.S. government and its agencies; Federal Money Market Fund; and certificates of deposit issued by U.S. government-insured financial institutions. The Board should appoint an Investment Broker to work with the association staff and treasurer in developing an investment portfolio to meet the association’s needs.

A complete record of all investments, including bank or other holding agency, amount of investment, account number or other identification, interest rate, maturity date, conditions for withdrawal and other pertinent information shall be on file in the Executive Office.

Income from all association investments shall be deposited to the general fund.

6061 Long-term Investment Policy

A. Preamble

Founded in 1896, the Illinois Library Association (ILA) is a 501(c) (3) charitable and educational organization. The association represents all types of libraries—public, school, academic, and special libraries serving government, commerce, the armed services, hospitals, prisons and other institutions. Its members are primarily librarians and library staff, but also trustees, publishers, and other supporters.

The Illinois Library Association is the voice for Illinois libraries and the millions who depend on them. It provides leadership for the development, promotion, and improvement of library services in Illinois and for the profession of librarianship, in order to enhance learning and ensure access to information for all.

The association is governed by a fifteen-member Executive Board, made up of elected officers. The main sources of income are: membership dues, continuing education fees, and the sales of published materials.

The Invested Funds of the Illinois Library Association, hereinafter referred to as the “Fund,” is an investment portfolio generated from the net.
surpluses of the association in prior years.

The Fund is held as an asset of the association under the authority of the Executive Board, hereinafter referred to as the "Board," for the express purposes of providing investment income to support the programs and services of the association, to serve as a reserve source of funds in the unforeseen event of a financial catastrophe or deficit, and to build the assets of the association through reinvestment and capital appreciation.

The Fund shall not contain any assets that may be restricted as regards their investment or disposition. The Board is responsible for the implementation of and adherence to the policies and objectives of the Fund as set forth in this document.

The Board may retain professional investment management to manage the investments of the Fund and to provide advice and counsel in such matters.

B. Investment Objectives

1. Rate of Return Objectives: The Fund is expected to achieve, over the measured period as defined in Paragraph B 4, a Total Rate of Return which exceeds the Consumer Price Index (CPI) and S&P 500 Index (after investment advisor fees.). Total Rate of Return is defined as all dividends and interest and all realized and unrealized gains and losses net of all investment-related expenses, including the investment manager's retainer.

2. Cash Income Requirements: Since there are no immediate liquidity demands on the Fund, the source of investment return is not important. There is no preference for cash income as opposed to capital appreciation.

3. Relative Performance: In addition to the Real Rate of Return objective stated above, total investment return for each fund over a market cycle is expected to be in the top half of the peer group and appropriate benchmark for each investment.

4. Measured Period: For purposes of measuring a rate of return over a market cycle, the measured period shall be no less than three nor more than five calendar years.

5. Fiduciary Standards: The assets of the Fund are to be invested and managed in a fashion that is consistent with generally accepted standards of fiduciary responsibility. The safeguards that would guide a prudent investment manager are to be strictly observed.

All transactions utilizing assets of the Fund are to be undertaken for the sole benefit of the Fund and the association. All regulations specific to the State of Illinois will be observed.

C. Investment Guidelines

1. Permissible Investments: Assets of the Fund may be invested only in publicly-traded common and preferred stocks, exchange traded funds, convertible bonds, and fixed income securities, whether interest bearing or purchased at discount, including money-market instruments, subject to any restrictions hereinafter specified. In addition, mutual funds may be utilized for investment of fund assets. No other securities or instruments shall be presumed to be permissible investments without prior written approval of the Board.

2. Asset Allocation: The long-term financial requirements of the association and preference of the Board imply a portfolio of investments, placing heavy emphasis on equity securities because of their superior total return characteristics over full market cycles. The Board recognizes, however, that there may be times when fixed income investments may also be an appropriate asset class for the Fund because of their superior current income and safety of principal characteristics. Therefore, the asset allocation policy for the Fund shall be as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Asset Allocation Maximum % Minimum %</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Equities (including short-term buying) 90% 50%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fixed Income                         50% 10%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Under normal circumstances it is the Board's intention to have the Fund substantially invested in equity securities.

a. Equity Investments: The Board has a strong preference for "no-load" mutual funds. The Board believes that the use of equity mutual funds and exchange traded funds will provide professional management, broad diversification, and relative cost efficiency considering the modest size of the Fund. The mutual funds selected, weighted by the proportion each investment bears to the total equity investment mix, shall reflect an overall risk and return profile similar to that of the S&P 500 Index.

b. Fixed Income Investments: The fixed income assets of the Fund shall be invested with Money Markets, CD's, U.S. Government Bills, Notes and Bonds, Corporate Bonds rated A or better, Exchange Traded funds, and Bond Mutual funds.

D. Investment Management

1. Investment Management: The Board, at its discretion, may retain the services of one or more professional, licensed, investment consultants to assist in the implementation of the Board's stated investment policy. A copy of this policy shall be provided to the investment consultant(s). Any fees shall be set forth in a letter of agreement between the association and the consultant(s).

2. Operating Procedures: The executive director is hereby authorized to carry out and implement the directions of the Board with respect to the investment of Fund assets.

E. Review Procedures

1. Review and Amendments: The Board, or its appointed Committee, shall review this policy annually to determine if amendments or modifications are appropriate. Amendments, when approved, shall be communicated promptly to all interested parties.

2. Management Reporting: Any consultant(s) retained by the Board shall be present for one regular or special meeting of the Board each year. They will review the performance of the Fund within the context of the Investment Policy and Objectives and will make recommendations as to any desirable changes in the overall investment strategy. The consultant(s) will also make recommendations regarding any changes in investment policy deemed appropriate.

6063 Temporarily Restricted Net Asset

The Association reports gifts of cash and other assets as temporarily restricted if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets. When the assets are depleted, the fund is eliminated. The Association, as of June 2012, has the following temporarily restricted funds: Hugh C. Atkinson Memorial/DEMCO Award; de Lafayette Reid Fund for Continuing Education; Robert R. McLaren Legislative Development Award; and the Sylvia Murphy Williams Fund. For background information on each of these awards, please refer to the Awards section of the ILA Handbook of Organization and Membership Directory.
6065 Endowment Fund

1. Establishment: The Executive Board (hereinafter “the Board”) of the Illinois Library Association (hereinafter “ILA”) has resolved to establish and maintain an Endowment Fund for Illinois libraries.

2. Purpose: The purpose of the Endowment Fund is to support Illinois libraries and specifically, to be used to account for the receipt, investment, and the disposition of resources donated to ILA when such gifts are made with the stipulation that only the income earned from the investment of the donated assets may be spent.

3. Use of Proceeds: The interest earned by the Endowment Fund (herein “proceeds”) will be used by ILA to:
   • provide resources to develop, promote and improve library services in Illinois;
   • enhance learning and ensure access to information for and through Illinois libraries;
   • shape the future of libraries by advocating for the development of public policy and legislation, and promoting intellectual freedom; and
   • support educational programs designed to develop library leaders.

4. Donor Agreements: Although ILA will adopt and utilize a standard form for Donor Agreements incorporating the general terms of this policy, the Executive Committee is authorized to negotiate the specific terms of any modified agreement with a donor when advisable and when the donor wishes to make a restricted gift or a gift of appreciated property, or limit the use of the respective proceeds. Such modified Donor Agreements must be in writing and are subject to the approval of the Board. Once such agreements are approved by the Board, the ILA executive director may execute the agreement on behalf of ILA.

5. General Terms: All information about donors or prospective donors, including names, beneficiaries, gift amounts, estate sizes, and so forth shall be kept strictly confidential by ILA and its authorized personnel unless permission is obtained from the donor to release such information. In order that proper and appropriate recognition and appreciation can be afforded to donors, ILA personnel may encourage donors to give such permission, but any donor limitations shall be honored.

Donors should be advised to seek legal counsel for all aspects of proposed gifts whether by devise, trust agreement, contract, or other legal document. The donor should consult with an attorney on matters relating to both estate planning and the tax liability of a gift.

The principal amount of the perpetual endowment gifts must remain intact in the Endowment Fund in perpetuity. Income from such gifts, the proceeds therefrom will be available for expenditure or reinvestment. The gifts in the Endowment Fund bear legal restrictions that the Board ordinarily cannot alter except as permitted by the donor, the Donor Agreement or applicable state or federal law.

If ILA receives appreciated property as a gift for the Endowment Fund, the Board will sell the property as soon as prudently possible, with the advice of the investment manager. The proceeds from the sale shall then be invested through the Endowment Fund.

Endowment gifts may be restricted or unrestricted as to the ultimate disposition of income earned. In order to restrict the use of funds earned from a gift, the donor must donate a minimum of $100,000. Each restricted gift of $100,000 and above will have a separate accounting entry. The principal amounts of each restricted fund will be readily identifiable, the income earned during each accounting period will be readily identifiable with the fund that produced it and the ultimate expenditure of such restricted income must be traceable.

6. Fund Management: The Endowment Fund is used in a legal and accounting sense to account for resources obtained from outside donors or grantors who have placed restrictions on the use of either the principal amounts of their gifts and grants or the proceeds or income earned on those principal amounts. Other ILA designated funds are not generally included within this group of funds for accounting purposes.

For financial management purposes, the Endowment Fund may be invested with other ILA funds, such as reserve funds, to facilitate the integration of operational and investment cash flows with long term asset planning. If the Endowment Fund is integrated with other ILA funds, the Endowment Fund must be separately identifiable through generally accepted accounting practices and procedures.

The ILA Board shall select an investment manager who will recommend an investment strategy for the Endowment Fund. This professional will guide the Board, so that the endowment portfolio is invested under the guidelines set up in ILA’s Investment Policy.

7. Spending Policy: All endowment earnings should be appropriated for expenditure.

8. Termination: If ILA joins in a federation with other state associations, the Endowment Fund shall be transferred with other ILA assets and liabilities to the new federation, but the Endowment Fund shall be restricted in its use and operation to be used for the same purpose or purposes as set forth in this policy and the applicable Donor Agreements. If ILA is disbanded or dissolved, the Endowment Fund shall be transferred to the 501(c)3 foundation of the American Library Association for perpetuation of the purposes for its establishment.

6070 Workshops

Budget formulation is the responsibility of the appropriate manager (or individual designated by a manager) planning or chairing the event. All workshops must be planned on a cost recovery basis. Nonmembers shall be charged a higher registration fee than members. The association will assess a $15 registration/administrative fee per registrant for all events handled by the ILA office.

All bills must be submitted to the ILA office within sixty days of the event to receive payment.

6076 Outside Funding

A forum manager, committee chair, or any group within the association must obtain executive director approval prior to applying for or seeking any special funding or grant from a federal, state, or other outside agency.

The Executive Board shall be notified of all requests for special funding or grants from any federal, state, or outside agency.

Evaluating Project Feasibility

1. Is the proposed project conceptually appropriate?
   • Does it fit within the parameters of ILA’s mission and strategic plan?
   • Does it provide necessary resources to ILA in the form of any or all of the following:
     • Does it constructively promote ILA and Illinois libraries?
     • Does it provide needed services to ILA and/or Illinois libraries?
Requirements Checklist:
If ILA determines that a proposed grant or project is both conceptually appropriate and realistic, prospective project partners or projects must meet the following requirements before submitting a proposal involving ILA:

- If ILA is to administer a grant and/or bear responsibility for its execution, a minimum of 10-30 percent of project funds (or other reasonable amount determined by the ILA Executive Director or designee) should be allocated for associated administrative tasks, including but not limited to time allocated to grant writing, reporting, budgeting, record-keeping, etc.
- Any in-kind costs potentially incurred by ILA must be revealed to and agreed upon by the ILA Executive Director or designee before any grant proposal involving ILA is submitted to potential funder(s).
- Exempting any in-kind costs agreed to by the ILA Executive Director, project funds should cover all costs incurred by ILA for project expenses such as, but not limited to: accounting; human resources; information technology; telecommunications services; equipment; promotional materials; supplies; travel.
- Either the grant funding must fund appropriate staffing levels to complete the project, or partners must provide appropriate staffing to carry out the funded activities without putting an undue burden on ILA staff.
- The roles of each partnering entity must be agreed upon and clearly spelled out in the grant itself, and/or in a memorandum of understanding.

6080 General Reimbursement & Billing Policies
The association will reimburse only expenses that have been officially approved by the Executive Board through its annual budget. Members cannot incur a program expense without the prior approval of the appropriate person.

No member may enter into a contractual agreement or incur vendor expense over $200 without the approval of the ILA office. Approval is given in the form of a purchase order.

All expenses over $200 must be billed to the association and are handled as accounts payable.

The following expenses incurred on approved association business, including participation as an Executive Board member, committee member, or forum member may be reimbursed upon receipt of the approved voucher.

A. Transportation

1. Public transportation: Actual cost of coach fares on airlines, buses, railroads, or cab fares with reasonable tip will be reimbursed. If the most expensive means of transportation is utilized, the expense must be pre-approved by the chair of the meeting. When available, members are expected to use an airport limousine or bus rather than private taxi. Baggage handling, tolls, parking fees, and other necessary tips are reimbursable.

2. Private automobiles: The mileage rate will be set by the ILA Executive Board. Mileage payment shall not exceed the cost of public transportation when the latter is a reasonable alternative. When two or more people travel in the same vehicle, only one shall claim mileage.

3. Rental cars: Rented vehicles shall be used only when no other form of transportation is available or in cases where use by more than one person results in a savings over other available transportation.

B. Housing

Actual costs will be reimbursed when required by a two-day association activity (including travel time). Baggage handling tips are reimbursable. Members are expected to use the least expensive accommodations whenever possible.

First priority for hotel complimentary rooms at the ILA Annual Conference will be given to the ILA president and conference co-chairs. The executive director may assign additional complimentary rooms at his or her discretion.
C. Food

Food expenses are not reimbursable by the association unless the meal price is included in the cost of the activity. An exception is the expense of meal tickets for each association award winner and a guest at an association-wide function.

D. Special Expenses

The cost of certain miscellaneous expenses may be allowed. For example, costs for a room rented for official business and telephone calls and wires on official business are reimbursable.

6080.1 Payment of Bills, Contracts, and Other Expenses

Bills are paid within ninety days of receipt. Checks in payment of vouchers and bills are issued semimonthly.

6080.2 Forum Operations—Expenditures & Reimbursements

Forums are annually budgeted for basic operations. This amount is determined by the Finance Committee as part of the annual budget process.

6080.3 Activities—Expenditures and Reimbursements

All expenses related to association activities, such as workshops, publications, or surveys, must be pre-approved.

6082 Expenses for Meetings Held in Conjunction with Another Conference

The association will support the attendance of the ILA Councillor to the ALA Midwinter Meeting and Annual Conference and of the ILA President to Library Legislation Day and the ALA Annual Conference. The Finance Committee will annually budget appropriate amounts for covering the expenses when the budget is prepared. Reimbursement for transportation, lodging, and food will be based on the ILA fiscal policy.

6083 Repayment of Advances

When the association advances monies for members for food, transportation, and/or lodging to facilitate scheduling or to obtain a discount, all monies must be repaid to the association within thirty days after the event.

6090 Honoraria and Fees

Association members are not paid honoraria or fees for work performed for the association. Speaking engagements or workshop presentations are examples of service to the association in the same manner as assuming a leadership role within the Illinois Library Association or committee work.

Exceptions may be made in advance with the approval of the Executive Board. An exception may be granted if a member's contribution is clearly and specifically related to recognized professional expertise outside the field of libraries and librarianship and for which a fee is normally charged. If an association member's library is recognized on a national level and the expectation of a fee or honorarium is customary, an exception may also be approved by the Executive Board.

6091 Cash Awards

A monetary award of $600 or more to an association member requires the Executive Office to submit a 1099-MISC tax form in the name of the award recipient.

ILA Public Policy Principles

This statement of principles incorporates widespread library development concerns as identified by all segments of the Illinois library community.

These deliberately broad principles form the framework for ILA’s positions on public policy issues relating to library services, and they will be accompanied each year by an action agenda developed by the Public Policy Committee and approved by the ILA Executive Board that are designed to be responsive to immediate legislative concerns and opportunities. These principles provide a basis for ILA and its members’ response to non-ILA sponsored legislative initiatives.

The Illinois Library Association supports any and all opposition to censorship and restriction of intellectual freedom, in all formats.

The Illinois Library Association shall uphold the principles in the American Library Association’s , the statement, and the .

The Illinois Library Association shall defend the rights of all library patrons to confidentiality of their records.

The Illinois Library Association strongly supports the role of all libraries as access points to electronic information.

The Illinois Library Association supports moral and ethical behavior in both provision of library services and governance of libraries.

The Illinois Library Association supports full and complete access to public information.

The Illinois Library Association shall assist all libraries in meeting recognized standards appropriate for their services.

The Illinois Library Association supports in principle the legislative program of the American Library Association and continues to take a leadership role in its development and implementation.

The Illinois Library Association shall work toward ensuring that all libraries are governed by appropriate laws or rules enabling them to provide maximum quality services.

The Illinois Library Association shall work toward ensuring equitable personnel and operating policies for all libraries.

The Illinois Library Association shall work toward ensuring that all libraries have physical facilities enabling them to provide maximum quality services and comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Illinois Accountability Code.

The Illinois Library Association shall work toward provision of adequate financial support that is not diminished from year to year for all libraries.

The Illinois Library Association shall encourage all libraries to extend services to the unserved and underserved, advocating state wide tax supported local public library services.

The Illinois Library Association supports appropriate funding and staffing of the Illinois State Library.

ILA’s Quick Response Team

In 1996, ILA President Sue Stroyan appointed a Legislative Consultant Task Force. The mission of the Task Force was to evaluate ILAs legislative and public policy program and develop recommendations to establish and maintain a vital legislative presence for ILA with the Illinois state legislature and the Office of the Governor (see July/August 1996, pp. 2-4). One of the task force’s recommendations was the establishment of a Quick Response Team.

“On rare occasions during a legislative session when the legislative consultant identifies a need for a change in or variation of ILA’s official position on a bill, the board believes that a quick response group consisting of the ILA president, chair of the Public Policy Committee, the director of the Illinois State Library, and the ILA executive director should consult by telephone, e-mail, or fax, if necessary, to give the consultant guidance.”

The Illinois Library Association’s Executive Board reaffirmed this policy at the June 7, 2002 ILA Executive Board meeting and added the past president to the Quick Response Team.

As requested by the Illinois State Library Director, the Illinois Library Association’s Executive Board removed the Illinois State Library Director as a voting member of the ILA Quick Response Team and added the incoming ILA President as a member of the Quick Response Team. This action was taken on December 4, 2009.

Internet Access Policy

The Illinois Library Association acknowledges that the Internet provides access to powerful and information-rich resources that expand the boundaries of knowledge. Together, information and access to that information constitute the twin pillars of democratic government and an informed citizenry. The Illinois Library Association supports the following principles regarding access to resources: free and unfiltered access to information is crucial to an informed citizenry; all federal and state constitutional provisions related to First Amendment freedom; and rights of individuals to privacy in their use of electronic information resources.

The Illinois Library Association notes that the U.S. Supreme Court decision in , 521 U.S. 844, 117 S.Ct. 2329, 138 L.Ed.2d. 874 (1997), states that attempts to limit access to the Internet in the name of protecting citizens are unconstitutional. The Illinois Library Association supports the right of parents and legal guardians to guide the development of their children and to select those resources that they deem suitable for their own children. ILA asserts that Internet policy is appropriately developed at the level of the local library rather than the state or federal level.

Passed by the ILA Executive Board, February 25, 2000.

The Use of ILA’s Name

The Illinois Library Association (ILA) is a nonprofit organization serving as the voice for the interests of libraries located in Illinois. It provides leadership for the development, promotion, and improvement of Illinois library services through a structure of forums and committees and task forces.

All units in the ILA structure are responsible to the Executive Board that determines policies. The Board’s actions, however, may be changed by a two-thirds vote of the membership (Article V, Section 4). Thus, the ultimate responsibility for the use of the Illinois Library Association name rests with the membership.

The Executive Board is a governing board, appointing an executive director who is in charge of the day-to-day running of the Association.

ILA leadership, in carrying out their assigned duties and responsibilities, are called upon to use ILA’s name and, in that name, to commit the Association to programs and activities. All such use of ILA’s name requires approval of the executive director and, ultimately, the Executive Board.

ILA leadership, using ILA’s name in executing their responsibilities or in entering into formal relationships with other organizations, abides by stated ILA policies and principles. Formal relationships which permit another organization to use the name “ILA” or that of the ILA unit, other than to identify the provider of information or services, must be based on a written agreement pursuant to which ILA retains control of the use of its name or the unit’s name. Again, all such agreements require the approval of the executive director and, ultimately, the Executive Board.

Passed by the ILA Executive Board, June 8, 2001.
Illinois Library Association sponsors forums* for political candidates to:

1. educate our members;
2. motivate our members to participate in the elections;
3. give our members a chance to hear the views of significant candidates; and
4. provide the opportunity for the candidates to hear our concerns.

(* Forums are defined as ILA sponsored in-person meetings, print and/or electronic communications between candidates and members.)

Criteria for Political Candidate Inclusion
To insure that these goals are met, the following criteria for candidate participation will be considered.

1. The candidate must meet the requirements of the Illinois Constitution and the United States Constitution.
2. The candidate must meet all requirements to be on the ballot according to state election laws.
3. The candidate must have made a public announcement of his or her candidacy:
   • The candidate must show evidence that a formal campaign is being waged, e.g., presence of headquarters (office, storefront or other publicly accessible site other than the candidate’s personal residence), campaign telephone number, stationery and staff (campaign manager, treasurer, public relations person), scheduled campaign appearances, calendar of events which the candidate will attend.
4. The candidate must demonstrate voter interest and support. In assessing the significance of a candidacy, ILA will require that either: (a) a candidate’s party received at least 5 percent of the popular vote in the most recent prior general election; or (b) by September 15 has shown at least 15 percent support in a reputable statewide poll. ILA may consider other factors, as well.
5. Demonstration of voter interest and support. In assessing the significance of a candidacy, ILA will require that either: (a) a candidate’s party received at least 5 percent of the popular vote in the most recent prior general election; or (b) by September 15 has shown at least 15 percent support in a reputable statewide poll. ILA may consider other factors, as well.

In all cases, the Illinois Library Association will exercise its good faith judgment in deciding whether or not a candidate has demonstrated sufficient voter interest and support.

Passed by the ILA Executive Board, February 28, 2002.

Guidelines for Campaigning by Candidates for the ILA Executive Board
These guidelines are intended to insure, insofar as possible, that there is equality of opportunity for all members of the Illinois Library Association to seek elected office regardless of their personal financial resources or their access to organizational or other financial support.

The association encourages candidates to use good judgment in their use of financial and other resources available to them in conducting their campaigns.

ILA Support:
Support provided to candidates by ILA:
   • A link on the ILA Web site to a Web page maintained by the candidate, as well as a link on the ILA election page with the candidates’ photo and biography.
   • The publication of the names and library affiliations of the candidates proposed by the ILA Nominating Committee in the February issue of the ILA Reporter.
   • A candidate’s statement of no more than 150 words that is included in the ballot mailing to all members.

Other than the support listed above, no ILA funds or staff time may be used to support the candidacy of any individual candidate.

Campaign contributions:
Soliciting campaign contributions is prohibited. Campaign contributions by vendors, either in cash or in kind, have the potential of seriously skewing the election process. Candidates must avoid such contributions. Vendors should be encouraged to make financial contributions to recognized ILA endowments and special funds previously established to receive these.

Travel:
ILA does not provide funding for candidate travel. All travel arrangements and expenses are the responsibility of the candidate.

Endorsements:
Individuals who are elected officers of the association are considered official representatives of the association and are presumed to be speaking as official representatives. Therefore, they may not endorse candidates. Members of the Nominating Committee may not endorse individual candidates.

Campaign materials:
Candidates are encouraged to use creativity to reach out to association members and to minimize personal costs through the use of electronic resources such as e-mails, Web sites, podcasts, etc. Campaign materials should reflect only the goals and perspective of the candidate. All discourse should reflect positively on the association and its members.

Violation of the above guidelines may result in disqualification. These guidelines will go into effect as of July 2008.

Passed by the ILA Executive Board, February 28, 2008.

Equal Rights Amendment
At the request of the ILA Public Policy Committee, the ILA Quick Response Team determined in May 2003 to endorse the ratification of the federal Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) by the Illinois General Assembly and requested the Illinois library community to contact their elected officials to ask them to support ratification of ERA.

Service to Homeless Populations in Illinois

While affirming the right of access to information for all, the Illinois Library Association and its members believe library policy regarding services to homeless populations are best established at the local level. The following guidelines are offered in support of developing local policies that are in accordance with state and federal laws, provide maximum access to information to individuals seeking library services, and protect the collective interests of the community as a whole, represented by the library board.

In addition to ensuring the rights of patrons, both homeless and not, libraries are in the business of offering resources to their community that provide opportunity to those most in need. To deny access to information on the basis of economic or social disadvantage is to participate in perpetuating that disadvantage. At the same time, policies that protect everyone's access to that information are an essential part of ensuring continued support and existence of library resources.

Legal precedent has held that public libraries, as places set aside by the government for the public's receipt of information and services, are designated public forums subject to the First Amendment. As such, individuals possess a right to access the public library that is protected by the First Amendment. (Kreimer v. Bureau of Police, 958 F.2d 1242, 1259 (3d Cir. 1992).

Courts have struck down a number of library policies that effectively allowed library employees to deny access to the homeless because of individuals' appearance or personal hygiene. In general, rules that permit library employees to make discriminatory decisions regarding a user's right to access the library do not survive court review, especially if the rule appears to target a particular class of users. (See Kreimer, above; see also Armstrong v. D.C. Public Library, 154 F. Supp. 2d 67, 75 (D.D.C. 2001).)

Following a 2006 case filed by the Massachusetts Coalition for the Homeless, the Central Massachusetts Housing Alliance, and the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) against the Worcester Public Library, a policy was developed that added options to the library's practice of requiring proof of residency, such as:

1. Letter from social service agency or temporary employer providing proof of residency within the past 30 days.
2. Returned post card mailed to an individual at a given address; when it is returned to the library by the individual, establishing that they receive mail at that address, they are allowed to apply for and receive a library card. There is an additional provision that the address needs to be verified orally every three months. Massachusetts does not accept a post office box or business address for this purpose.

A recent article in Public Libraries, May/June 2012, “Library Service to the Homeless,” offers guidelines to developing legally acceptable practices and ethical policies. ILA suggests developing a policy checklist that includes:

- Accordance with the First Amendment;
- Equality and consistency of policies and enforcement;
- Clear and open statement of policies;
- Regular review and appeals process; and
- Cooperation with social service agencies in the community to provide alternatives to conventional proof of residency and other practical, constructive means to provide access.

Passed by the ILA Executive Board, June 15, 2012.

Creating or Changing Illinois State Law

Robert P. Doyle

Creating or changing Illinois state law is a complex, time-consuming, and difficult process. Statutory changes require passage by the Illinois legislature and approval of the governor. The effort requires the total mobilization of all interested persons aggressively advocating for the proposed legislation. While each bill and set of circumstances are unique, generally speaking, all of the following major steps are required to change Illinois law:

1. Ideas, Initiatives, Positions, and Agenda
   - ILA's advocacy program includes development of legislative initiatives (bills proposing changes to existing Illinois laws), legislative monitoring (review and tracking of all bills introduced), development of association positions (support, opposition, or neutral position on bills affecting ILA's membership), and direct advocacy on key bills.

   The Illinois library community and the ILA Public Policy Committee (PPC) are responsible for formulating initiatives (for example, laws the association would like to create or amend) and developing positions on legislative issues presented by others. This combined agenda is presented to the ILA Executive Board for its approval in early fall and then presented to the ILA membership at the annual membership meeting. The ILA Executive Board, through the PPC, is the final authority for determining the association's position on specific bills.

   Action Item: If the association would like to propose new legislation, the association, through the public policy process, must approve the proposed legislative initiative.

2. Strategy
   - The PPC is responsible for developing a comprehensive strategy to get a bill passed. The ILA Executive Board will review, refine, and approve the strategy; and the ILA staff, with the assistance as noted below, will be responsible for implementing the strategy.

   Action Item: PPC must develop a strategy that includes all the steps needed to pass a bill: research, legislative drafting, sponsorship, testimony, development of position papers, membership education, and all advocacy efforts.
3. Research

No idea will be seriously considered unless it is grounded in fact and supported by solid research. It is insufficient to state that the bill is necessary or desirable. The association must be able to explain the history of the problem, the current situation, and how the proposed legislation specifically addresses the problem. Each aspect of this research must be more than anecdotal. It must be backed-up wherever possible with statistical or other quantifiable proof of each point asserted. The Illinois library community and the ILA Public Policy Committee are responsible for the research work.

Action Item: Outline and assign research tasks to support legislative premise.

4. Drafting Legislation

Every proposed bill must be drafted in the proper format and taken to the Illinois Legislative Reference Bureau for printing. Proper drafting requires legal, historical, and often technical knowledge. ILA staff will be responsible for drafting the bill, the PPC and the ILA Executive Board will review the draft(s). It is typical for any proposal to go through many rewrites and amendments before a final form is approved.

Action Item: Draft and approve the proposed legislative language.

5. Sponsorship

Effective advocacy begins with identifying the best elected official(s) to lead the legislative effort. While all legislators will ultimately be asked to support a bill, the lead sponsor in each chamber is crucial to success. For example, if the association wants to proceed with a bill that has fiscal implications and that will likely be referred to the Revenue Committee, the lead sponsor might best be a member of that committee. Or, if the association wants to proceed with a bill that has intellectual freedom implications and that will be referred to Judiciary Committee, the lead sponsor might best be a member of that committee. An excellent cosponsor is an official from the district where the issue was raised or a key leader in the Illinois General Assembly. Contacting legislators to request sponsorship is time-consuming but incredibly important to successful passage. ILA staff, with advice and assistance from the Illinois library community, will be responsible for obtaining lead sponsors. ILA members would be asked to seek cosponsorship by their local legislators.

Action Item: Select and contact the best lead and cosponsors.

6. Coalition Building

It is absolutely crucial that the association engage other associations or interested parties in supporting or neutralizing opposition to a bill. The groups listed in parentheses will have the primary responsibility for the following steps in this process: identification of key players (PPC and ILA staff), contacting these groups (PPC and ILA staff), possibly negotiating with these groups (ILA staff), maintaining communication with coalition (ILA staff), determination of groups to present testimony (PPC, ILA staff, and coalition members), and division of floor responsibilities (ILA staff and staff from coalition members with a presence in Springfield).

Action Item: Contact and build a broad-based coalition with clearly assigned responsibilities.

7. ILA Advocacy

Advocacy requires mobilization of the entire membership and active participation by every person in a leadership role at the association.

Action Items: If ILA seeks the passage of a bill, the following will need to be done:

a. notify the membership of the effort and ask them to directly contact legislators (ILA staff);
b. highlight the issue at advocacy day (ILA staff);
c. prepare materials explaining the issue that could be used by members in contacts with legislators and distributed to legislators and staff (PPC and ILA staff);
d. ask the Illinois Secretary of State and State Librarian to take a lead role in advocating on our behalf (ILA staff);
e. direct advocacy to legislators and legislative staff by ILA's legislative consultant;
f. preparation and delivery of testimony by ILA at all relevant committee hearings (PPC, ILA president, and ILA staff); coordination of those appearances will be handled by the ILA staff; and

Action Item: Advocacy to governor’s office requesting support and governor’s approval.

8. ILA’s Quick-Response Team

On rare occasions during a legislative session when ILA staff identifies a need for a change in, or variation of ILAs official position on a bill, a quick-response team consisting of the ILA president, past president, chair of the Public Policy Committee, the director of the Illinois State Library, and the ILA executive director will consult by telephone, e-mail, or fax, if necessary, to provide guidance.

Action Item: Quick-response team called as required by changing circumstances.

9. Advocacy to Governor’s Office

As a bill progresses in the legislative process it is crucial to involve the governor’s office to seek his support or address concerns. Once a bill is approved by both chambers of the legislature, advocacy contacts and letters of support need to be sent to the governor to explain the bill’s purpose and request his signature. ILA staff will notify the membership of this effort and ask them to contact the governor at appropriate times.

Action Item: Advocacy to governor’s office requesting support and governor’s approval.

10. Post-Governor’s Action

If the governor vetoes a bill passed by the legislature, it would be necessary for the association to advocate for an override of the governor’s veto when the legislature reconvenes. This often requires re-initiating many of the steps identified above, including additional research, drafting of new position papers, work with lead sponsors, contacts to legislators, preparation of testimony, mobilizing the membership, etc.

Action Item: Develop and implement a comprehensive strategy for overriding the governor’s veto.

Awards

Introduction
The Illinois Library Association’s awards program recognizes excellence in librarianship and library service in Illinois. The program increases awareness of the contributions of all association participants, including committee and forum managers to administer committee and forum awards; publicizes the awards to attract qualified nominees; selects association-wide award winners.

Committee chair and members are appointed by the vice president/president-elect of ILA. Committee membership is limited to not more than ten personal members, in addition to the chair, representing diverse types of libraries. Members serve two-year, staggered terms with up to five members being appointed each year. The chair serves a three-year term: one as a member-at-large, one as the chair, and one ex-officio.

ILA Committees and Forums

YOUTH SERVICES FORUM
Davis Cup Award
Golden Ticket Award

See www.ila.org for a complete list of previous award winners.

All awarding groups must work in accordance with the established timetable listed in the Awards guidelines.

Awards not given by an ILA committee/forum but from another source, (such as a library, individual, company etc.), will be solicited, evaluated, selected and announced by the Awards Committee.

ILA committees/frameworks must:
1. Obtain and confirm sponsorships.
2. Solicit nominations in cooperation with the Awards Committee.
3. Evaluate award nominations.
4. Contact the award winners, in cooperation with the Awards Committee, and send all necessary follow-up documentation.

Lack of Suitable Award Applicant

Awards committee and committees/frameworks are not obligated to make a selection of a winner in any year when an appropriate candidate for an award is not available. In the event that no deserving nominations are received, the committee/forum may not then nominate a recipient. In the event that no nominations are received, the committee/forum may nominate one or more persons from which the committee/forum may then choose a recipient.

Nomination/Review Procedure

The Awards Committee begins to publicize the nominations for ILA awards in January under the guidance of ILA staff. Publicity will be included in the ILA Reporter, ILA E-Newsletter, and on the ILA Web page. Each committee/forum that is responsible for an award will work with the Awards Committee to promote its award. All publicity should start in the month of January and conclude in May.

All nominations and letters of recommendation should be received by the ILA office by close of business on May 15. Any nomination that does not include all of the necessary components outlined on the stated criteria of the award will not be considered.

The ILA office will send all necessary nomination documentation to Awards Committee members, as well as each committee chair/forum manager responsible for an award, and notify the Awards Committee chair of number of nominations received for each committee/forum award.

All committee members who have been nominated or who have made a nomination for any award will remove themselves from commenting or voting during the voting process. In the event that a committee member’s library has nominations (either for the library or library employee), that committee member will remove themselves from commenting or voting during the voting selection. The ILA organization, ILA committees, and ILA forums are not eligible to be nominated for any ILA award.

A systematic procedure for evaluating nominations should be agreed upon prior to the selection. It is strongly suggested that the procedure and/or form utilized in the previous year be used or at least serve as a point of reference.

Establishment of New Awards
The request for a new ILA or committee/forum award may be made by any member or committee/forum of ILA or from any individual or group outside ILA interested in the recognition and development of libraries and librarianship.

The following points should be considered for the establishment of a new ILA award:

1. The intent and purpose of the individual or group making the proposal or donating a sum of money to be used for award purposes. ILA awards shall recognize significant achievements within the profession and not serve primarily as advertisements for the donor.
2. The existence of already established awards in the same or similar areas of interest, since overlapping awards are to be avoided.
3. The monetary award to the winner and a three-year commitment of funding.
4. All ILA awards presented must have a personal, corporate, or other type of sponsor/underwriter.
5. ILA awards are typically of two types: Conference Grants and Recognition Awards.

A copy of the award proposal must be submitted to the ILA office in June in order to be considered for the following year; i.e., submit proposal by June 2012 for an award to be presented at the 2013 ILA Conference.

The ILA Executive Board shall consider each proposal at an executive board meeting. It is useful for a representative of the ILA committee/forum most closely connected with the proposal to attend this meeting to answer questions and to hear the advice of the executive board. The proposed award will be presented to the ILA Executive Board and, if approved, will be given to the Awards Committee Chair for inclusion in the official roster of ILA Awards.

Funding
Beginning in 2012, the following guidelines will be applied to funding levels for awards.

1. A minimum three-year commitment of funding.
2. Recognition awards will have a minimum award amount of $200.
3. $50 annual administrative fee to be paid by sponsors to help offset the following:
   a. Preparation, printing and distribution of award criteria and nomination forms.
   b. Publicity and promotion of the award.
   c. Presentation expenses.
4. If it is stipulated that an award winner is to be given a certificate or plaque, then the sponsor for that award will be responsible for cost of certificate or plaque.

Discontinuing or Suspending an Award
ILA awards may be discontinued or suspended for any of the following reasons:

1. Lack of nominations or applications for the award for three consecutive years.
2. Inability of Awards Committee to select a winner because criteria are not relevant, impractical, or outdated.
3. Continuing pressure on Awards Committee to influence the selection of a winner.
4. Withdrawal of financial support by the sponsor.
5. Any other reasons deemed appropriate by the Awards Committee.

Recommendations to discontinue or suspend an ILA award will be presented to the ILA Board of Directors for action.

Unless otherwise noted, the nomination deadline for Awards is May 15.

See www.ila.org for list of past winners and additional information.
Hugh C. Atkinson Memorial/ Demco Award
Presented by Illinois Library Association and Demco, Inc. in honor of Hugh C. Atkinson (1933-1986). Due in large part to his influence, Illinois garnered national recognition in statewide interlibrary cooperation. As a supplier to the nation’s libraries for more than eighty years, Demco is committed to recognizing excellence in libraries and library service as exemplified by Hugh Atkinson’s leadership.

Category
The award shall be made annually for sustained activity and contributions having a lasting impact on librarianship. The recipient may be an individual, a group, a program, or an institution.

Eligibility
The award recipient must meet the criteria outlined. Individuals need not be librarians or ILA members, nor groups associated with ILA or with any specific library organization. Programs may have originated in any institution or organization with or without library affiliation, and an award-winning organization may be a library, a library system or consortium, or a non-library organization.

Criteria
To be considered for this award, activities or contributions relating to multi-type library cooperation and/or resource-sharing should meet one or more of the following standards:
• evidence of a sustained effort over a period of years;
• contribution should be of a permanent quality; and
• performance should serve as a model for similar programs.

The written statement of support should be based on the above criteria. Attach newspaper clippings or other forms of documentation, if available, to this application.

In the event that no deserving nominations are received, the ILA Awards Committee members may not then nominate a recipient.

Award
The recipient will receive a certificate and $1,000 financial award.

Crosman Memorial Award
Presented by the ILA Awards Committee and Mortenson Construction in memory of Alex Crosman, director of the Peoria Public Library until his death in 1986. Crosman was instrumental in forming the Junior Members Round Table in Illinois.

Category
This award recognizes the achievements of the library workers who are new or relatively new to the field and encourages continued involvement in the profession. Other awards honor those who have accomplished a great deal over a long period of time; this award is to honor people who have accomplished a great deal in a short time.

Eligibility
Open to those who have been in the library field or profession for ten years or less.
• Open to individuals working in all types of libraries.
• Individuals may nominate themselves or be nominated by others.
• ILA Awards Committee members are not eligible for the award.
• Nominee must be a personal member of ILA.

Criteria
Emphasis will be placed upon involvement and contributions to the library field and involvement in the community or institution served by the nominee’s library. The written statement of support should include:
• previous positions and dates;
• memberships and offices in professional or related organizations;
• publications;
• honors received;
• two professional references including names, addresses, and phone numbers; and why the nominee deserves the award (in 200 words or less).

ILA Awards Committee members may solicit and nominate candidates for the award. The ILA Awards Committee is responsible for determining whether or not the nominee meets the criteria of the award. Award Committee members must work with the nominations received in accordance with the established timetable; in the event that no deserving nominations are received, the Awards Committee members may not nominate a recipient.

Award
The recipient will receive a certificate and a $200 financial award.

Davis Cup Award
Presented by the ILA Youth Services Forum and ABDO Publishing to honor Marion Davis for her active role in services to children at the Des Plaines Public Library and beyond. Often serving as mentor to children's librarians in the area, Davis was a storyteller extraordinaire, making this oral tradition a link with people, young and old.

Category
This annual award is presented to a person who has made an outstanding contribution in library service to young people. Since its inception in 1971, the award has been presented to individuals who exemplify resourcefulness, professionalism, and caring in their service to young people.

Eligibility
The recipient must be an ILA member. Neither the recipient nor the nominator need be a youth services librarian. Members of the Davis Cup Committee and the Youth Services Forum officers cannot nominate an individual for the Davis Cup.

Criteria
The nomination should consist of the completed ILA nomination form and a written statement. The statement should be no more than four pages, demonstrating with specific examples how the individual meets the following criteria. A maximum of three references may be included. The criteria for consideration are:
• specialized or innovative programs or services for young people initiated by the nominee;
• service to the library profession through active participation in professional organizations (at the local, state, or national level), the training of others, publishing, etc.;
• the nominee has influenced and/or cooperated with persons and organizations within his/her community in the planning or presenting of programs or services for young people; and
• the nominee has reached and affected persons outside his/her own community by deed, idea, and/or example.

Award
The recipient will receive an engraved Revere bowl and a $300 financial award.
Demco Library Innovative Award
Presented by the Illinois Library Association and Demco.

Category
This award recognizes a library, library consortium, or library system's achievement in planning and implementing an innovative or creative program or service, which has had measurable impact on its users. The purpose of this award is to encourage innovation by highlighting the overall activities of a library (including staff, administration, governance, and volunteers) in successfully marshalling its resources to benefit its users.

Eligibility
Libraries, library consortiums, or library systems of any size and type are eligible for this award.

Criteria
- The recipient must be a library rather than an individual.
- The nominee will have designed and executed an innovative or creative program or service.
- The program or service must have had a measurable impact on its users.
- Innovation can be what is new to a particular library and library population and has a major impact on the community.

Award Winners
The recipient will be presented with a plaque, provided by Demco, and $1,000 financial award.

Robert P. Doyle ILA Conference Grant for Support Staff Award
Presented by Reaching Forward, a professional development conference for Library Support Staff in honor of ILA Executive Director Robert P. Doyle, who has been a strong advocate for library assistants and provided essential support for the Reaching Forward Conference.

Category
The purpose of this award is to encourage ILA membership and support staff attendance at the Illinois Library Association Annual Conference by support staff.

Eligibility
Open to support staff working in all types of libraries, who may nominate themselves or others.

Criteria
Submit a statement, one page or less, completing the phrase “Why I (or my nominee) would like to attend the ILA Annual Conference and how it would affect my (his/her) personal and professional growth.”

Award Winners
The recipient will receive a one-year ILA membership and full registration and expenses to attend the ILA Annual Conference, up to $800, and a framed certificate.

Nomination Deadline
March 31

---

Golden Ticket Award
Presented by the ILA Youth Services Forum and Rob Zimmers of Quality Books, Inc.

Category
This annual award is presented to an individual who has made an outstanding local contribution in library services to young people in his/her community by creating and implementing library programs that promote a love of literature and instill positive feelings about libraries.

Eligibility
The recipient should be an individual working directly with children in a library setting. Individuals may nominate themselves or be nominated by others. Nominees need not be a personal member of ILA. Members of the Youth Services Forum's Awards Committee and Youth Services Forum officers cannot nominate an individual for this award. In the event that no deserving nominations are received, Committee members may then not nominate a recipient.

Criteria
The nomination should consist of the completed ILA nomination form and a written statement of no more than four pages. The written statement should include:
- Examples of innovative and dynamic programs for youth up to eighth grade initiated and presented by nominee within the past two years
- How such programs have benefited the library and its community
- Why the nominee deserves this award
- Optional: A maximum of three pages of supporting pictures and a maximum of five promotional flyers may also be included.

Award
The recipient will receive a one year personal membership to ILA (if already a personal member, he/she will receive a free one year renewal of his/her membership), and a $200 financial award.
Illinois Academic Librarian of the Year Award
Presented by the Illinois Association of College and Research Libraries (IACRL) Forum and CARLI.

Category
Established in 1985, this award recognizes an Illinois librarian who is making an outstanding statewide contribution to academic or research librarianship and to library development.

Eligibility
Any ILA member; the recipient must have distinguished himself/ herself in notable service to the forum and to the Illinois Library Association, as well as exhibited leadership and exemplary library service in an academic setting.

Criteria
To assure equity of representation of awardees among the various types of academic libraries and constituencies represented in the forum's membership, the awards committee will give consideration, on a revolving basis, to these factors in the selection process. Individuals nominated should have demonstrated achievements in such areas as:

- service to the organized profession through ILA, the IACRL Forum, and related organizations;
- significant and influential academic or research library service;
- contributions to academic or research library development through research or publications; or
- planning or implementing a library program of exemplary quality.

Nominees do not have to meet all the above criteria.

Award
The recipient will receive a certificate, a $500 financial award, and have their name and date added to the plaque at the Illinois State Library.

Intellectual Freedom Award
Presented by the ILA Intellectual Freedom Committee and Quality Books, Inc. The officers and managers of Quality Books, Inc. are lifelong residents of Illinois and have strong personal commitments to libraries. Freedom to choose what materials shall be available in libraries is a core concern and this honorarium recognizes the sharing of that responsibility by others.

Category
An individual or group is recognized for outstanding contributions in defending intellectual freedom or the advancement of these principles as espoused and promulgated by both the Illinois Library Association and the American Library Association.

Eligibility
Nominations are solicited throughout the state of Illinois from school, academic, special, and public libraries. Library systems are also solicited, as well as ILA and its forums and committees. Any other Illinois group or individual may also submit nominations.

Criteria
Submit a written statement of how the nominee meets the criteria. If nominated due to a specific incident, give the date and attach any supporting documentation, such as newspaper clippings, etc. The award may be for a single event of the current year or for an ongoing project, educational workshop, or promotion. It also may be related to legislative support on the local, state, or national level.

Special consideration will be given to events or contributions relating directly to the First Amendment. The committee is also interested in recognizing activities related to the broader topics of freedom of information, with the understanding that contributions must impact directly on Illinois and its citizens to be considered.

Award
The recipient will receive a certificate and a $500 financial award.

Librarian of the Year Award
Presented by the Illinois Library Association and Sikich.

Category
This award recognizes a librarian’s distinguished service and leadership in Illinois libraries. Generally, the librarian so honored will have made an impact locally, statewide, and nationally. However, if an individual’s service is unusually outstanding on one level, then the nomination can rest on that area alone. Librarians so honored will have demonstrated a commitment to libraries, and especially Illinois libraries, which can serve as a model for others in the profession.

Eligibility
Any professional staff member of an Illinois library and member of the association.

Criteria
The award recipient shall meet at least two of the following criteria:

- active membership in ILA, as evidenced by attendance at conference and workshops, participation on ILA committees or forums, or other support of the association;
- leadership role in ILA;
- positive contributions to the library field, such as research, publications, innovative program development, etc.; and
- outstanding work on a particular aspect of library service in the home library of the nominee, e.g., grant award, successful referendum for tax or bonds for library construction, outstanding public relations program, etc.

An official nomination shall consist of a letter of nomination justifying the nomination in light of the criteria above. Letters of support will not be considered. Instead, the nominator is asked to list references with which the committee may consult, if additional information about the nominee is required.

Award
The recipient will receive a certificate and a $500 financial award.
Robert R. McClarren Legislative Development Award
Presented by the ILA Public Policy Committee.

This award was established in 1989 to recognize Robert R. McClarren for:
• inspiring and guiding the development of a comprehensive legislative program on behalf of Illinois libraries and the Illinois Library Association;
• serving with singular distinction on the ILA Library Legislative Development Committee;
• being instrumental in establishing a grassroots program of legislator education and awareness;
• drafting language for library legislation, which benefits Illinois libraries;
• being an articulate spokesperson on behalf of Illinois libraries with the secretary of state, the General Assembly members, and Congressional delegation members;
• being instrumental in drawing statewide support for library legislative initiatives from a broad base of constituencies; and
• embodying by example the highest standard for citizen initiative in the shaping of the laws governing Illinois library development.

Category
The award is given to a worthy recipient from the Illinois library community—librarian, trustee, legislator, or library—who has contributed significantly to legislative development in the state of Illinois.

Eligibility
An individual, group, or institution may be nominated.

In the event that no deserving nominations are received, the Public Policy Committee may not then nominate a recipient.

Criteria
The award recipient shall demonstrate most or all of the following:
• Membership in ILA.
• Employment in an Illinois library.
• Involvement in library public relations and adult programming at the ILA and in other local/regional/national forums.
• Continuing production of exciting and innovative public relations activities and/or adult programming.
• Demonstrated success at level that is recognized as exemplary over a period of years in either or both library public relations and adult programming.
• Nominee is considered a role model by virtue of deeds, actions, ideas, and examples.

Award
Recipient(s) will receive a certificate and a $250 financial award.

Oberman and Rich Reaching Forward Conference Grant for Support Staff Award
Presented by Reaching Forward, a professional development conference for Library Support Staff in honor of Tobi Oberman and Tom Rich, who were instrumental in developing the Reaching Forward Conference for library support staff.

Category
The award recognizes the contributions of a support staff member to the library community and to the role of support staff in libraries.

Eligibility
Open to support staff working in all types of libraries. Persons may nominate themselves or others.

Criteria
A one page or less letter completing the statement, “Why I would like to attend Reaching Forward” or “Why I think [name of nominee] deserves to attend Reaching Forward” should be submitted to the selection committee.

Award
Recipient(s) will receive free registration to the current year Reaching Forward Conference, an overnight stay at the Reaching Forward conference hotel, $50 for expenses, and a framed certificate.

Nomination Deadline
March 31

Deborah Dowley Preiser Marketing Award
Presented by the Illinois Library Association and the Oak Park Public Library.

Category
This award recognizes a library employee’s excellent work in public relations and adult programming over a period of several years, reflecting the importance of publicity and adult programming as central to the role of the library as a community center and to the library as place.

Eligibility/Criteria
The award recipient shall demonstrate most or all of the following:
• Membership in ILA.
• Employment in an Illinois library.
• Involvement in library public relations and adult programming at the ILA and in other local/regional/national forums.
• Continuing production of exciting and innovative public relations activities and/or adult programming.
• Demonstrated success at level that is recognized as exemplary over a period of years in either or both library public relations and adult programming.
• Nominee is considered a role model by virtue of deeds, actions, ideas, and examples.

Award
Recipient will receive a certificate and a $250 financial award.
Reference Services Award

Presented by the ILA Reference Services Forum and Ancel Glink.

Category

This award recognizes excellence in accordance with the Reference Services Forum’s mission statement: “The ILA Reference Services Forum exists for all who are interested in providing assistance to library users as they seek and use information. The forum offers opportunities to share and enhance skills as well as to promote and recognize quality service throughout Illinois.”

Eligibility

Nominees can be an individual, group, department, or library. The nominee should be a personal ILA member or be employed by an institution that is an ILA member. Nominees do not have to be a member of RSF.

A Reference Services Forum subcommittee selects the recipient. In the event that no deserving nominations are received, the awards subcommittee members may not then nominate a recipient.

Criteria

Nominees must demonstrate one or more of the following:

- Specialized or innovative programs or services;
- Service to the library profession through active participation in professional organizations (at the local, state, or national level);
- The nominee has influenced and/or cooperated with persons or organizations within his/her community in the planning or presenting of programs or services for; and
- The nominee has reached and affected persons outside his/her own community by deed, idea, and/or example.

A written statement of no more than 200 words should be submitted. Letters of support and examples of quality work or innovative programs that reflect the intent of the forum’s award criteria, up to ten in number, should be included.

Award

The recipient will receive a certificate and a $250 financial award.

Alexander J. Skrzypek Award

Presented by the ILA and the Illinois State Library in honor of Alexander J. Skrzypek (1905-1976), the first librarian for the blind at the Chicago Public Library. Skrzypek’s career in libraries began in 1919 as a part-time page and he was named head librarian for the blind in 1952.

Category

The award is given to a person who has made an outstanding contribution to the advancement of library services for the blind or physically disabled in Illinois.

Eligibility/Criteria

The nominee’s contribution(s) to advancing library services for the blind and physically disabled may take the form of:

- an imaginative innovation in local or statewide services;
- a recognized contribution to the Illinois program of service for the disabled;
- an innovative public awareness campaign, which stimulated growth in local or statewide library services;
- a significant publication or writing in the field;
- the efforts of boards and libraries to follow/comply with the American with Disabilities Act (ADA); or
- any activity of recognized importance in the field.

In the event that no deserving nominations are received, the ILA Awards Committee may not then nominate a recipient.

The written nomination statement should support the criteria. Attach any supporting documentation.

Award

The recipient will receive a certificate and have their name added to the plaque at the Illinois State Library.

TBS, Inc. Technical Services Award

Presented by the Resources and Technical Services Forum and TBS, Inc. (Today’s Business Solutions).

Category

This annual citation is awarded to an individual who has made a substantial contribution in the area of library technical services.

Eligibility

The nominee should be a personal ILA member or be employed by an institution that is an ILA member. The nominee does not have to be a member of Resources and Technical Services Forum.

The forum manager and manager-elect shall appoint an awards subcommittee of three members. The subcommittee shall solicit, receive and evaluate all nominations. In the event that no deserving nominations are received, awards subcommittee members may not then nominate a recipient. Those recommending nominees for this award should submit a letter of nomination addressing how the nominee meets the criteria, and, if possible, obtain and submit a vita or resume from the nominee.

Criteria

Individuals nominated should have demonstrated achievements in such areas as:

- Planning and implementing a technical services program of noteworthy quality;
- Leadership abilities within the area of technical services; and
- Service to the profession through regional, state, and national organizations.

Nominees need not meet all of the above criteria.

Award

The recipient will receive a certificate and a $500 financial award.
Trustee of the Year Award
Presented by the ILA Trustee Forum and Bradbury Associates/Gossage Sager Associates, in honor of Don Sager (of Gossage Sager) and Sarah Long.

Category
This annual citation is awarded to a public library trustee for achievement, leadership, and service to libraries.

Eligibility
The nominee must be a member of ILA and have made a significant contribution to his/her local library. Eligibility includes participation in two of three levels of service (system, state, and national activities) and demonstrated evidence of quality leadership ability.

Criteria
The written support statement should not contain the nominee's name, but should be attached to the fully completed Nomination for Recognition form. The written support statement should detail the following:

- contributions to local library, system activities, and involvement on the state and national levels;
- years of service, offices/positions/committees, and accomplishments;
- notable leadership qualities; and
- any other relevant information.

A note on the selection process for the Trustee of the Year Award: the ILA Trustee Forum Executive Board selects the winner, but the selection is done in the blind. The ILA Trustee Forum Executive Board does not know the name(s) of the nominee(s) until the selection is made. In the event that no deserving nominations are received, the ILA Trustee Forum Executive Board may not then nominate a recipient and the award will not be given.

Award
The recipient will receive a certificate.

Young Adult Librarian of the Year Award
Presented by the ILA Young Adult Services Forum and Sourcebooks this award honors Sharon Ball for her positive impact on young adults and Young Adult Librarians as she served as a consultant for the North Suburban Library System and beyond. She served as an advocate and inspiration to Young Adult Librarians in Illinois for years and brought Young Adult services to the forefront during her career.

Category
The purpose of this award is to recognize outstanding service to young adults by a librarian serving in the state of Illinois. This annual award is presented to a professional Young Adult Librarian who is currently an ILA member. The recipient will have made an outstanding local contribution in library services to young adults in his/her community by creating and implementing library programs and services that promote a love of literature and/or instill positive feelings about libraries.

Eligibility
The recipient should be an individual working directly with young adults in a library setting. Nominees need to be a personal member of ILA. Nominees must hold a Masters of Library and Information Science. Individuals may nominate themselves or be nominated by others. Members of the Young Adult Services Forum's Awards Committee and Young Adult Services Forum Officers may not nominate an individual for this award.

Criteria
The nomination should consist of the completed ILA nomination form and a written statement of no more than one page. A maximum of three letters of reference may be included. The written statement should include:

- Examples of innovative services and dynamic programs and/or services for teens, grades 6-12 initiated and presented by the nominee within the past two years
- How such programs and services have benefited the library and/or its community
- Why the nominee deserves this award

Award
The recipient will receive a certificate and a $200 financial award.

Murphy Williams Award
In 2003, the association established a fund in the name of the late Sylvia Murphy Williams, 2002-2003 ILA President and Director of the Dundee Township Public Library. The award provides encouragement and support to Illinois recipients of the ALA Spectrum Initiative Scholarship. The Spectrum Initiative was created to address the issues of underrepresentation of ethnic librarians within the profession and to serve as a model for ways to bring attention to other diversity issues. Awardees receive a paid registration to the current ILA Annual Conference and meal functions, recognition at the annual conference award luncheon and a featured article in an ILA publication.

Policies Governing Conference Registration, Literature Distribution, and Conference Speakers

Adopted by the ILA Executive Board, November 22, 1996

1. Admission to programs is by official conference badge only.

2. All attendees must register for the conference.
   Exceptions:
   a. Registration fee for ILA staff is waived.
   b. Special guests of ILA, such as the speakers for General Sessions, will have their registration waived for the entire conference. The ILA President, Executive Director, and/or the Conference Chair can approve guests to the conference.
   c. At conference social events, one guest may attend without conference registration if accompanied by a registered conferee. Guests must purchase event ticket(s) if applicable.

3. There will be a preferential registration fee for ILA members. A preferential registration fee may be extended to other groups with the approval of the ILA Board.

4. Volunteers, including committee members, are expected to pay the regular registration fees to attend the conference. There are no special discounts or preregistration for committee members.

5. A discounted fee for all categories of registrants will be offered to individuals who preregister.

Nonprofit organizations may submit materials for the Literature Distribution area. These materials must be approved in advance by the conference manager. No commercial firms may use this area. All handling is the responsibility of the applicant.

1. Regular Conference Programs Honoraria/Expenses
   a. Employees and trustees of Illinois libraries or library agencies will not receive honoraria nor have expenses reimbursed for presenting regular conference programs.
   b. Speakers not related to the Illinois library community will receive a one-day waiver of the registration fee for the day they are speaking. They are eligible to receive honoraria, fee to be established on a case-by-case basis, and to be reimbursed for expenses. (Reimbursable expenses to include: a pre-established per diem, travel expenses, and host costs at the conference hotel.)
   c. Honoraria and expenses for nonmembers and non-librarian speakers will be negotiated by ILA staff in consultation with the Conference Committee.

2. Requests for equipment to be used by speakers must be submitted to ILA staff for review within a time frame established by the staff in consultation with the Conference Committee.

3. Decisions concerning the taping of program sessions will be made by ILA staff. A release form signed by the speaker must be on file before a conference program may be taped.

For preconferences the following is in effect:

Sponsorship Guidelines

At the November 15, 2002, ILA Executive Board meeting, the board determined to propose the following “Sponsorship Guidelines” for the ILA membership's consideration at the 2003 ILA Annual Conference:

1. Sponsors will be invited to send a representative to the Opening General Session to be introduced by the ILA president; the representative would not be invited to speak at the session.

2. At smaller events, sponsors could be invited to speak by the organizers of the event. Presentations would be limited to five minutes.

3. Sponsor banners will not be displayed at the Opening General Session. They could be displayed at other events at the discretion of the event organizers.

4. Signs produced by ILA and bearing the sponsor's logo will be displayed at all events.

5. The sponsor's logo will be displayed in the conference program book.

6. Distribution of promotional materials would be permitted. At the Opening General Session, materials may be placed on chairs; the association, however, does not provide literature distribution tables for promotional materials. Organizers of individual events may allow promotional materials to be displayed and distributed for the length of that event only.

7. Sponsors will be allowed to greet attendees at receptions.

8. Deadlines must be met by sponsors. Those responsible for conference sponsorship fundraising will be made aware of these deadlines.

Passed by the ILA Membership, October 16, 2003.

Membership Benefit Programs

The Illinois Library Association may sponsor certain member benefit programs designed to provide a savings or other such benefit to association members. Through these programs certain products or services may be offered to members at a discount. The sponsoring of member benefit programs implies no Association endorsement of these products or services or similar products or services offered by others.

I. Program guidelines

A. General

A member benefit program is defined as one which extends to ILA members, as a direct result of membership in the association, a savings or other benefit on a product or service made available to the members by an outside entity. This provision does not apply to member benefit programs of six months or less duration. General criteria to be applied to all member benefit programs sponsored by ILA include the following:

1. Such programs must represent a clearly defined benefit for members of the Association.

2. The benefit to be provided must be of significant interest to a wide spectrum of the membership of the Association.

3. The savings or other such benefit to be made available through a specific program should represent the best benefit available for the particular program, at that point in time.

4. The product or service to be offered must be of a high quality and the company or organization whose product or service is being utilized must maintain a reputation for reliability and fine service.

5. The benefit program must not conflict with the general purposes of the Illinois Library Association or any of its established policies.

6. The benefit program must be reviewed by the Finance Committee of the Illinois Library Association, to determine compliance with ILA policies. The ILA Executive Board has the authority to determine if a proposed program is appropriate for the Illinois Library Association to undertake and to approve such programs.

7. Such programs shall not be limited to a specific number.

8. The negotiated benefit for a particular program shall be of the greatest monetary or service value to the entire membership of the association. The direct and indirect costs related to developing and administering a particular benefit program shall be borne by the supplier to the extent possible. Revenues derived from ILA-wide member benefit programs shall be allocated by the Board as a part of the annual budget process.

9. It shall be understood that the Illinois Library Association’s membership benefit programs are offered to provide a special savings or other benefit on selected products or services offered by others. The ILA logo or any identifying symbol or words shall not be used in such a manner to imply or state an endorsement by the association of a product, publication or service.

10. The list of members of the association may be provided in exchange for or in connection with the member benefit program as negotiated in the agreement.

II. Procedural guidelines

The following guidelines shall govern the process of review, approval and oversight of member benefit programs:

1. The Finance Committee shall have the responsibility for the investigation and review of all new benefit programs proposed.

2. The ILA Executive Board shall similarly have responsibility for monitoring existing benefit programs and for review of specific benefits or services being offered when such programs are up for renegotiation or renewal, so as to determine whether they continue to be acceptable and appropriate in view of the guidelines.

3. All benefit programs shall be fully communicated to the association members for whom they are available, both when new programs or benefits are being announced and on a continuing basis, so that the membership can take full advantage of them.

4. The terms of any agreement pertaining to a member benefit program shall be detailed in a contract with the company or organization providing the product or service.

Adopted by ILA Executive Board Friday, 8 February 2013
ILA Membership Advantages

Personal Membership
Membership in ILA offers professional growth opportunities, access to a wide range of useful publications, and opportunities to participate in workshops, conferences, and a variety of groups and committees. Through its legislative advocacy efforts, ILA continuously fights to protect the interests of Illinois' libraries, and was presented the Illinois Press Association's 1999 Legislative Service Award for outstanding commitment to the protection of free speech and free press issues.

Members have opportunities to participate in more focused groups and committees as well. ILA's special interest groups are free of charge to members and serve the diverse needs of ILA's membership. Activities throughout the year include special workshops, informal working groups, publications, seminars, and more. ILA also has a number of standing committees to which members are appointed for two and three-year terms.

Benefits of a Personal Membership with ILA include:

- Professional development workshops, seminars, and conferences at discounted member rates
- Participation opportunities in ILA's different special interest groups, addressing issues from intellectual freedom to social responsibility, and serving the needs of special groups from academic to youth services librarians, from public library managers to library trustees
- Legislative advocacy through ILA's legislative program which represents ILA at legislative hearings and issues legislative alerts and updates to ILA's membership
- Employment services through the Library Jobline of Illinois
- Networking with colleagues throughout Illinois and increasing legislative contacts
- ILA Reporter, a bimonthly magazine which covers legislative topics, current issues, information on ILA activities, and the only published calendar of statewide, library-related events and the ILA E-Newsletter
- Savings on ILA publications
- Discount on Illinois Library Association Handbook of Organization and Membership Directory, an essential reference tool for association information and networking
- Recognition through ILA's awards programs, honoring deserving individuals each year for their accomplishments for the library community Students receive substantial savings on educational activities
- Opportunities for savings with Hertz Rent-A-Car

Legislative Advocacy for Illinois Libraries
Advocacy is a major ILA function, and we influence public policy in many different ways. The goal of the ILA Legislative Action Network (LAN) is to establish a network of library supporters who will directly and personally contact public officials at key points in the legislative process.

Members of LAN are asked to contact their local public officials and ask them to support ILA's public policy position. This may be as simple as asking them to vote YES or NO on a particular bill. It might also include making them aware of a major issue and asking for their support. It might even be that a local official has taken a position harmful to libraries and he or she needs to hear why libraries are opposed.

LAN will be most effective when its members have first established a strong relationship with their local and national public officials. The power of the network is that public officials will hear directly from local constituents. Constituents that they know and trust on library issues.

We invite you to make the important commitment to become an advocate for libraries. ILA will also make a commitment to you. When asked to make contacts to public officials, we will tell you when, who and why. We will give you the information you need to make the most effective contact. We will respect your time, and only ask you to make a personal contact to a public official when it is crucial to our advocacy effort. "LAN Alerts" will be timely, targeted, and thoughtful.

Libraries have a great story to tell, and especially in these difficult budget times, we can’t expect our elected leaders to support our needs unless we let them know what matters to us!

Become a Personal Member today! Join online at ila.org or mail/fax the application on page 66.
ILA wants you to get involved!
If you are interested in joining any of these special interest groups or committees, check the appropriate boxes.

Special Interest Groups
ILA’s special interest groups are free of charge to members and serve the diverse needs of ILA’s membership. Information regarding these activities reaches members via the ILA Reporter and forum leaders. Activities throughout the year include:
- special workshops
- informal working groups
- publications
- more formal task forces
- seminars

Government Documents Forum (GODORT)
Focuses on government information issues and is affiliated with ALA’s GODORT.

Illinois Association of College & Research Libraries (IACRL) Forum
Presents the interests and concerns of academic librarians in Illinois (ACRL chapter).

Leadership Forum (LF)
Provides a forum for nurturing and mentoring current and future leaders, as well as developing and promoting outstanding leadership practices, both within ILA and the broader Illinois library community.

Librarians for Social Responsibility Forum (LSRF)
Issue oriented, responding to librarians’ social issues.

Library Trustee Forum (LTF)
Maintains a continuing education program and information network for library trustees and encourages citizens’ use and support of libraries.

Public Library Forum (PLF)
Addresses the networking needs and professional growth of public library managers.

Reaching Forward: Forum for Library Support Staff
Addresses the needs and interests of library assistants in academic, public, school, and special libraries.

Reference Services Forum (RSF)
Offers opportunities to share and enhance reference skills, including readers’ advisory, as well as to promote and recognize quality library reference service.

Resources & Technical Services Forum (RTSF)
Focuses on the development, design, application, and integration of various technologies to improve access to and delivery of information to libraries.

Young Adult Services Forum (YASF)
Creating and providing professional development opportunities and materials for library staff members working with young adult populations.

Youth Services Forum (YSF)
Addresses the needs and interests of those concerned with quality library service for children.

Committees
ILA has a number of standing committees to which members are appointed for one- two- and three-year terms. By indicating your interest, your name will be kept on file for openings that may become available. These committees include:

- Advocacy Committee
  - Implements the association’s legislative agenda; develops annual advocacy plan; builds partnerships and develops educational materials.

Awards Committee
Administers the awards and recognition program of the association annually; publicizes the awards to attract qualified nominees; selects association-wide award winners. Committee membership is not more than ten personal members from diverse types of library settings.

Best Practices Committee
Promotes excellence in Illinois libraries by identifying and making known innovative services, community outreach initiatives, and management procedures. Selects an annual award winner and finds methods for encouraging communication among libraries about their best practices, and, using the ILA Web site, features the best of what our libraries are doing.

Conference Program Committee
Coordinates program planning for ILA Annual Conference. Membership will be made up of individuals representing the diverse nature of our association with appointments for one year.

Cultural and Racial Diversity Committee (CARD)
Identifies strategies to recruit workers of varied cultures and races in libraries and to provide support for these workers to obtain professional library degrees.

Fundraising Committee
Identify fundraising strategies that will provide long-term financial stability for the association, to include, but not limited to, such areas as grants, the endowment, and scholarships.

ILA Reporter Advisory Committee
To work with the ILA executive director to help ensure quality content in the ILA Reporter and to assist in obtaining that content.

Intellectual Freedom Committee (IFC)
Works to resist all attempts to censor library materials or to restrict public access to information.

iREAD Committee
The Illinois Reading Enrichment and Development (iREAD) program is a coordinated, self-supporting effort to develop and provide high quality, low cost resources and products to enable local library staff to motivate children to read. The committee is composed of nine Members three Chairs past chair, present chair and future chair; four coordinators: resource guide coordinator, showcase coordinator, conference coordinator, and publicity coordinator, and two members at large. The chair is appointed by the ILA vice-president/president-elect for a three-year committee term.

Marketing Committee
The Marketing Committee is charged with developing and implementing a marketing plan regarding the role of libraries in the information age and the role of librarians as information navigators.

Nominating Committee
Develops an annual slate of candidates for the Executive Board, including vice-president/president-elect and ALA councilor (every four years). Committee consists of six members, in addition to the chair, serving one-year terms. Chair of the committee is the immediate ILA past-president.

Public Policy Committee (PPC)
Provides the association’s focus on legislative matters; recommends studies on projects designed to advance the development of all types of libraries; advocates legislative action which advances library service for all residents of Illinois. Committee consists of twelve voting members, serving three-year, staggered terms.

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSIONS TO THE ILA REPORTER

The ILA Reporter is the Illinois Library Association’s bimonthly newsletter and a primary membership benefit for personal, institutional, and associate members. Each issue features articles on professional concerns and developments, along with news of the association, library-related legislation, and libraries around the state. Expression of diverse viewpoints and critical interpretation of professional issues make the newsletter a forum for the exchange of ideas crucial to the fulfillment of ILA’s goals. Indexed by H.W. Wilson in Library Literature & Information Science, the ILA Reporter was first published in 1962.

STYLE: Informal, but informative. Factual articles must be inviting and readable, with all statements backed by responsible research and interviews. The Chicago Manual of Style may be used in styling articles for publication, but extensive footnoting is discouraged.

LENGTH: 750–1500 words (two and a half to four pages double-spaced).

DEADLINE: The deadlines for the ILA Reporter are as follows:
- December 20th: February issue,
- February 20th: April issue,
- April 20th: June issue,
- June 20th: August issue,
- August 20th: October issue,
- October 20th: December issue.

SUBMISSIONS BY E-MAIL: Copy should be submitted by e-mail to ila@ila.org. While the ILA Reporter is capable of handling a wide range of word processing programs in both the PC and Mac formats, when submitting a manuscript, please indicate the word processing program used.

EXCLUSIVE SUBMISSION: It is assumed that no other publisher is or will be simultaneously considering a manuscript submitted to the ILA Reporter until that manuscript is returned or written permission is provided by the ILA Reporter editor.

RIGHTS: Exclusive North American rights are retained until three months after publication, unless another arrangement is made in writing. ILA retains rights to have the published material reproduced, distributed, and sold in microform or electronic text.

REPRINT POLICY: No reprints can be provided, but permission is usually granted for authors to reproduce their contributions as published in the ILA Reporter. Others wishing to republish the text of an article are referred to the author for permission and fee information. A reasonable number of copies are sent to each author. Special arrangements may be necessary to reproduce illustrations.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT: Unsolicited manuscripts are acknowledged when received.

PUBLICATION DATE: On acceptance, an estimated date of publication may be provided to the author. This date is subject to change.

EDITING: On accepted manuscripts, the editors reserve the right to make editorial revisions, deletions, or additions, which, in their opinion, support the author’s intent. When changes are substantial, every effort is made to work with the author.

PHOTOGRAPHS: Color photos are preferred. High-resolution digital .jpg images should be sent to doyle@ila.org.

Digital Image Specifications: Grayscale or color file, .jpg, .tif, or .eps: 300 ppi (pixels per inch). Bitmap image: 600 ppi. No .gif or .png files.

Captions should be provided identifying all individuals shown. Information should include first and last names in the order they appear in the photograph, agency affiliations, and a description of the activity pictured. Captions may include the name of the photographer.

ILLUSTRATIONS: Authors may submit photos or illustrations or the editor may commission illustrations for certain articles and features.

ILA Archives
These instructions are designed to assist the ILA in managing records and preparing materials for transfer to the ILA Archives, located at the Illinois State Historical Library.

Retention Period
The retention period for particular groups of records will vary. Records, however, that are no longer of current or even occasional use should be transferred annually. Materials needed for current administrative, fiscal, operational, or legal reference should NOT be transferred to the Archives.

Preserve
The following types of material should be preserved, except where such material has been separately published. (If the printed materials might be needed for comparison with related material in the archives and are not more than a few pages in length e.g., reprints, clippings, but not a whole volume—one copy should be kept.)

1. Files and other materials relating to the history, programs, activities and accomplishments of ILA or other subsidiary groups should be included with that of the larger group of which it is a part.
2. Constitutions and Bylaws.
3. Statement of function or duties of Boards, Committees, etc.
4. List of officers, members of Boards, Committees, etc.
5. Reports.
6. Minutes.
7. Correspondence. (Preserve as little miscellaneous correspondence as possible; significant items will be included with the material under projects, policy decisions, etc.)
8. Programs and proceedings.
10 Photographs.
11 Memorabilia.
12 Records of all projects and other activities proposed, whether or not completed.
13 Policy decision statements. (Some of these might be included in reports of officers, in statements of function and duties of Committees, in minutes of Boards and Committees, or in correspondence. In the last case, where several letters have been written to a group, one copy—annotated to whom sent—should be preserved.)
14 Questionnaires and surveys (one copy, annotated to show to whom and when sent) and one sheet compiling the results of the survey.
15 Forms (one copy).
16 Treasurer’s reports.
17 Material of biographical interest (including contribution of an individual to the development of a project, the Board, Committee, etc. or to the library profession).

Discard
1. Duplicate materials. When, by bringing together two files, an original and a carbon or photocopy are found, the original should be kept. Keep copies only if they contain significant annotations to the original.
2. General correspondence.
3. Materials superseded by more complete reports.
4. Materials pertaining to other units that would otherwise be retained by the issuing unit and not relating to specific activities of the unit weeding its files.
5. Miscellaneous business records (e.g., invoices, payment vouchers, expenditure lists, etc.) no longer needed for IRS purposes.

Procedures
1. It is recommended that files be weeded annually and/or weeded at the conclusion of individual major projects.
2. It is recommended, at the end of each fiscal year, material should be sent from the field to the ILA office by one officer from each forum or committee. Materials to be placed in the Archives can then be identified.
3. Arrangement of records for transfer.
   a. General material pertaining to ILA should be arranged first alphabetically by form (e.g., annual reports, minutes, proceedings, etc.) and second chronologically within the form.
   b. Project files should be arranged alphabetically by subject or project title.
   c. Material from Committees, Forums, Subcommittees, etc., other than that pertaining to projects as above, should be arranged first by name of Committee (and then by form if there is enough to subdivide).
   d. File Headings. The files of all groups will not fall under the same headings, but it is urged that uniform headings be developed for use from year to year by each group. This uniformity will help not only those responsible for the archives of their group, but also those studying the material over a period of years.
4. Place material in letter-size, acid-free folders (please do not send hanging file folders).
5. Mark each folder (use pencil directly on the folder, labels tend to eventually fall off) as follows:
   a. Name of Committee, Forum, or Board.
   b. Year covered.
   c. Name of Section, Committee, or Subcommittee when necessary.
   d. Heading.
6. For each group of records transmitted, fill out a Records Transmittal Form.
7. Cross references: it will be helpful to include with the materials, where appropriate, information for the following:
   a. Change in the name of committee.
   b. “See also” for material on same or similar topics in other folders.
8) Boxed records (record storage boxes—one cubic foot is volume size) will be sent by the ILA Office directly to Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library 112 N. Sixth St. Springfield, IL 62701 217-524-7219

Boxes should be numbered (e.g., Box 1 of 4) and each box should contain a copy of the Records Transmittal Form for the group of records being transferred.
