Programs Wanted!

For the 2009 ILA Conference
"Transformation: See Tomorrow Today"
October 6-9 » Peoria, Illinois

Have you created a new service? Have you incorporated new ideas into your department or library? Have you changed the way you are doing things? Have you transformed facilities, staff, training, boards, Web sites or attitudes?

If you answered yes to any of the above, we want to hear from you! We want to hear how transformation has lead to celebration! Consider presenting a program, talk table, or poster session at the 2009 conference. Program proposal forms may be found on the ILA Web site www.ila.org/events/proposal.html. Proposals must be submitted by January 12, 2009.

Preference will be given to proposals that align with the program theme.

And we are happy to help you develop your program. For questions or more information contact Sharon Wiseman, Chair, ILA 2009 Conference Program Committee, swiseman@gailborden.info, (847) 289-5801.
