

Reimbursement Policy

Employees who have purchased approved goods and services for the library, will be reimbursed for properly submitted out of pocket expenses on the next Accounts Payable approved by the Board of Trustees.

Staff will not be reimbursed for any tax paid. A tax exemption letter is available in the Administration Office and should be used for every purchase made for the library.